

The Sea Canal. A number of years ago, M. Leszner, a French engineer, made an arrangement with the Viceroy of Egypt...

Well, if this common cause is not to have the sanction of the Union, it is not worth the trouble of carrying it out...

It is clear that the nation which succeeded in achieving such a work as this, and controlling it when finished, would acquire a power in Egypt against which the public...

The putting down of this rebellion must be done, come what will. It is not a question of expediency, but of principle...

It is very probable that the finger of Great Britain, and perhaps of Russia, is in the scales of the balance...

The situation at Vicksburg. The St. Louis Republic, of Friday, furnishes the following letter, dated at Young's Point, May 23d...

The seven siege guns which the rebels left at Hatcher's Bluff on the 10th, when Sherman marched in between that high and the city are probably by this time turned against the rebel works...

Gen. Sherman's advance to York. Gen. Sherman has issued order No. 1, assuming command of the troops in Kentucky, except the Ninth Army Corps and Gen. Crook's division...

Gerritt Smith's Speech at the Union League Convention.

We give a few extracts from the speech of Gerritt Smith, delivered at Utica on the 26th.

THE CAUSE. I ask, what is this common cause that has drawn us together? Just here give me your special attention...
