Exciting News!—The Latest News by Telegraph.

Gen. Lee Moving up the Shenandoah Valley.

Winchester and Wheeling to be put in a State of Defense Immediately.

Intelligence of a highly exciting character reached this city yesterday through Gen. Halleck's telegraph to Gen. Brooks, in substance, that Lee's army, of a large portion of it, is now moving up the Shenandoah valley, and that immediate action should be taken to put Winchester and Wheeling in a state of defense at the earliest possible moment.

Winchester and Wheeling to be put in a State of Defense Immediately.

The telegraph operator at Frederick City notified Governor Curtin that the advance guard of Lee's army had appeared at Winchester, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, west of Harper's Ferry, and that sharp fighting was going on there on Sunday.

Winchester is reported to be in possession of the enemy.

Gov. Pierpont telegraphed to Gen. Brooks that he fears an attack on Wheeling, from the vicinity of Charleston, in the Kanawha Valley. A large force of rebels has been concentrated in that vicinity.

We also learn that the rolling stock on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has been hurried east and west, to Baltimore and Wheeling, to prevent any part of it falling into the hands of the rebels.

Delegation of citizens from Wheeling, Shenandoah and Weverville, arrived in this city yesterday, and were in consultation with Gen. Brooks relative to the movement of the rolling stock to Washington, Pa., and other points south of us, to protect the people, and put them in a state of defense.

Two other delegations have already been sent out in this city, by Gen. Barnard, and two thousand men are called for to work on the fortifications in this city, by Gen. Barnard, and two thousand men are called for to work on the fortifications in this city, by Gen. Barnard.

Recent papers contain the following interesting news: Rosecrans is reinforcing his position at Knoxville, Tenn. Grant is moving on from Louisville and Memphis to Nashville, Tenn. Sherman is moving on from Chattanooga to Atlanta, Ga. Johnston is moving on from Raleigh, N.C. to Richmond, Va. Lee is moving on from Winchester, Va. to Richmond, Va.
