

Pittsburgh Gazette

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 10, 1908.

Union County Election. The President of the United States. ROBERT HANFORD.

The French Elections. Next in interest and importance to the news of the continued success of the Poles...

The new Corps Legislatif of France will have in it a stronger opposition to the Imperial policy than has been known since...

But whether the view of the matter shall be verified or not, we must on having done now what has long been neglected...

The Emperor cannot feel uneasy at the result of the election. This, in the great city of Paris, there should have been...

But if these are denied, as they have been, the three opposition members of the Legislature will become the nucleus of an opposition that will be revolutionary.

The Rebel Movement. An extract from a letter from Washington to the Philadelphia Press has a word from the gallant General Stewart...

Gov. Curtis of Pennsylvania has been under the necessity of sending Pennsylvania troops to hasten forward the militia of Pennsylvania.
