Commencement Exercises of the Pittsburgh Female College

A crowded and deeply interested audience gathered at the Methodist Episcopal Church last evening to listen to these addresses, which consisted in the reading of addresses by the highly cultivated young ladies of good fortune in the school and under the guidance of such leaders as the faculty of the college. Here the solid, the elegant and the ornamental are beautifully and harmoniously blended—the rigorous, however, is not overdone—the elegant, however, is not

The Lawrence County Troops

The five companies of the 15th regiment, who reported here on Friday last, under the command of Col. O'Brien, returned here yesterday evening, to organize for the six months service. On their arrival here they were unable to procure subsistence as readily as was desirable, when Mr. N. P. Sawyer, a warm and generous friend of the Colonel, at once supplied them at his own expense. The act of generosity was not forgotten by the men, as will be seen from the following resolution which they passed previous to their departure. That the thanks of the 15th regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers, be hereby extended to N. P. Sawyer, Esq., for furnishing their subsistence with rations, the first day after our arrival here, and also for his understanding in procuring for us our first camp place. Resolved, That Col. O'Brien be requested to present Mr. Sawyer a copy of the above resolution, and that it be published in the Pittsburgh and New York papers.

Resolved, That the thanks of the 15th regiment be also extended to the following gentlemen, for their generous assistance in procuring for us our first camp place.
