

Pittsburgh Gazette

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JULY 1

Union County Ticket. For President Judge of the District Court. MOSES HARTMAN.

The Situation. All the elements of this tremendous war are in active motion.

There are, however, several considerations that will prevent him from holding on to his present position.

It is not known at present where the main body of Lee's army is. Some assert that his headquarters are at Chambersburg.

It is a long article in the Post of this morning which sets the following ridiculous assertions.

"The Blood of Douglas" Effervescing. In a long article in the Post of this morning we find the following ridiculous assertions.

"The Constitution as it is." One of the resolutions of the Ohio Peace Convention, is as follows:

CONFERENCE OF THE GOVERNMENT. A meeting of the Government is to be held at Washington, D.C., on the 15th inst.

ROBERTSON'S Advance. The Operations Campaign in Middle Tennessee. Mr. Robertson, the intelligent correspondent of the N. Y. Times with ROBERTSON'S army, in a letter written on the 24th, just as the army commenced its movement, gives the following interesting coup-d'oeil of the opening campaign.

Many here are of the opinion that Bragg will not make a stand at Shelbyville, Tullahoma, or indeed, anywhere along the line of the Duck; but that he will, after embarrassing our progress as much as possible, fall back to the line of the Tennessee river, in the vicinity of Chattanooga.

It is, of course, possible that he may do so; and this would certainly be a course that would not jump with our wishes, as we should have made our march for nothing, and added thirty miles to a line of communications already too deep.

With reference to this important question touching the strength of the Confederacy, it is a matter difficult to settle.

It is possible that we may be more fortunate than I at present look for. I pray Heaven we may be! We may be able, by a rapid and vigorous advance, to compel a battle that will be more or less decisive.

Gen. Meade, the successor of Gen. Hooker, is already pretty well known to the country as a corps commander in the Army of the Potomac.

Gen. Meade is far better known in the Army of the Potomac than by the public, though his reputation with the latter is high.
