LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS. [FROM OUR EVENING EDITION.] IMPORTANT FROM HARRISBURG.

THE BEBELS EXPORTED PALLING BACK Private Property Respected in Carlisle.

The rebels respected all private property in Carlisle, except the shoe and drug stores. The goods they took from the shoe and drug stores they paid for in gold, silver and greenback The rebel officers were quartered in the baracks. They stated before they left that they did not intend blowing up the barracks now, as they were going to return shortly; but this morning about three o'clock there was a loud explosien heard in the direction of the barsoks, and it is supposed they blew it up.
