THE LATEST NEWS BY TELEGRAPH

OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette. WASHINGTON, July 19, 1903.

10:45 P. M.—The report of an intention to propose General Meade by General Grant is entirely unfounded.

There are no signs of any rebel force in the immediate future, except at Occoquan, where a small party of guerrillas are gathering up horses.

It has been decided that Indians and half breeds are not subject to draft under the conscription law.

General Sherman is to be talked of as likely to be brought out for a permanent command.

Rebel prisoners are again on the way to the front. No more apprehension of the mob is being felt.

Rev. Dr. Massy, representing four thousand Episcopalians, is to be the President of the National Council of the A. S. S. N. C. on August 1st.

The Raleigh Standard is in favor of a reconstruction bill that would give the South and West the right to elect their own representatives to Congress.

Three companies of the Seventh Michigan Cavalry are to be sent to the front. They are to be sent to the front.

At the County Treasurer's office it was found that the room formerly occupied by the County Commission has been used for other purposes.

As the County Treasurer has now taken the room formerly occupied by the County Commission, it is to be used for other purposes.
