Resisting the Enrollment—Importance

In the United States District Court, Judge

McDonnell, presiding, the case of Joseph

Wright, charged with resisting the enrollment in the United States Army, was called up and argued on a motion in arrest of judgment.

Messrs. Magbanua, Koch, and R. L. Johnson, attorneys for the defendant, submitted an argument of which the following is a synopsis:

The indictment charges the defendant with resisting the enrollment in the United States Army, and with obstructing the enrollment of the defendant in the United States Army.

It is contended that the defendant is a citizen of the United States, and that he is entitled to the protection of the laws of the United States, and that he is entitled to the same rights and privileges as are accorded to other citizens of the United States, and that he is entitled to the Soldiers' Aid Meeting

The Miller's Ben Ladies' Aid Society held a public meeting, on Thursday, in the Bethany Presbyterian church, South Fayette township, for the purpose of aiding the Society in the good work of relieving the wants of the disabled and wounded soldiers. To this end the aid of the society, aided by others of the neighborhood, had prepared a very handsome and useful collection of goods, which were presented, and delivered, as follows: A quantity of clothing, including coats, hats, and shoes, and a quantity of food, including flour, sugar, and other provisions, and a quantity of medicine, and other articles of use to the soldiers. The collection was presented to the Society, and will be distributed to the soldiers as they are needed. The meeting was very successful, and the Society is confident that it will be able to do much good for the soldiers.

The meeting was held in the evening, and was very well attended. The collection was very large, and the Society is grateful to all who have contributed to it. The collection will be distributed to the soldiers as they are needed.
