Treatment of Rebel Prisoners

We have just been reading an account, by an exchanged Union prisoner...

Our informant is not very precise, and comes from parties who would probably be marked, if their names were known...

The Rebel Helms, many, on Confederate Property. The Times publishes a letter signed M. F. Murray...

And this suggests the remarks, that it is a curious fact, that so many of our political strongholds in Pennsylvania are manned by parties of this description...

The Catholic Organ on Slavery. The Catholic Telegraph, of Cincinnati, edited by Rev. Edward Farrell...

Beauregard in a Bad Way. The New York Times has deeply deplored because "Greek Fire" was thrown into Charleston...

Robles and Copperheads. The rebels do not hold the power and ability of the Copperheads in their high esteem...

Place, while it would be perfectly proper to make a list...

While the Draft Commissioners are diligently at work, to recruit the ranks of the army, the Judicial Machine seems to be equally busy...

The Emancipation on Policy. The President has been repeatedly urged to withdraw his proclamation of emancipation...

It is about time, we should think, to interfere for the credit of the writ itself, if nothing more...
