MISCELLANEOUS.

IMPORTANT TO RAILWAY COMPANIES; MILL OWNERS, &c.

We have erected and have in operation, near the city, an extensive Laboratory for the manufacture of

Lubricating and Paint Oil,

By a new and ingenious scientific process, and now offer and commend to public notice and patronage three grades, 1, 2 and 3 respectively, of 1st, 2d and 3d quality LUBRICATING OIL.

Wherever these lubricators have been tested, they have been pronounced greatly superior to any of the preparations lately offered in the market.

The "A," or best quality, is designed to take the place of the best Sperm Oil, and for use on cotton, woolen or other machinery. The "B," or 2d quality, for railway and other like machinery; and the "C," or 3d quality, for heavy and coarse gearing, &c.

The PAINT OIL has been tested by numerous Painters in this city, and proved to be a capital substitute for boiled Linseed Oil. Indeed many Painters give it a decided preference.

These Oils are now extensively manufactured at our

Eureka Lubric Oil Works.

As the process is scientific and uniform, customers can rely on the uniform excellence of these economic equivalents of Sperm and Linseed Oil. A trial and test is confidently invited.

TUESDAY MORNING.....OCT. 13, 1863.

The News.

The dispatches which we publish to day seem to leave hardly a doubt that the rebels are abandoning all that region of Virginia lying north of Richmond, in order to send every man that can be spared from the defences around their capitol to reinforce Bragg and Beauregard. Of course the call to strengthen this former is by far the most urgent—though the progress of Gilmore's works on Morris Island must now be exciting the liveliest apprehensions not only in the doomed city of Charleston itself, but throughout the entire confederacy, as the loss of the principal port where blockade running enterprise has centered, and which up even to this present has successfully defied all but partial interruption, could not be regarded otherwise than as a disaster of the most formidable magnitude, which must be averted at any and every risk.

Still, the accounts we have of the situation at Charleston render it almost certain that even a large army with Beauregard would not enable him to undertake anything that would seriously interfere with Gillmore's progress—as the latter works under the guns of the iron-clads, which fortunately dominate where Beauregard can do nothing.

It is, therefore, to Bragg that the main body of the reinforcements withdrawn from Lee's army will be sent, and as we have been assured that the military authorities at Washington are now fully aroused, and have been concentrating from all points immense bodies of troops to reinforce Rosecrans, we may anticipate hearing, within a few days, the most important movements that have taken place since the commencement of the war; leading, we trust, at length to what all loyal men have hoped for, and prayed for, and, according to their opportunities, worked for so long—decisive results.

A great crisis is therefore imminent. How deeply the rebels realize it, is evident from the fact that their General Joe Johnston has said their victories are useless unless they can crush Rosecrans before reinforcements reach him.

The Situation at Chattanooga.

A Louisville correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer writes:

The situation at Chattanooga is plain. The rebels, unfortunately for themselves, have massed their great army in Northern Georgia. They have risked too much, perhaps, to leave this point, and if they did perhaps they would fare as poorly elsewhere.

General Rosecrans will demonstrate in a few days: 1, That he can hold Chattanooga; 2, That he has General Burnside and his own army ready for active operations; 3, That he has the largest and finest army in the United States; 4, That he can envelope and destroy General Bragg's army if assisted properly; and, 5, That he can threaten or strike any point on the Atlantic seaboard at pleasure.

To this end his army has been augmented. General Burnside, with two corps, holds a position the value of which is hardly known as yet. When the enemy is thrown back upon the Virginia and East Tennessee Railroad he will be ready to finish General Rosecrans' work. General McPherson is advancing from the West, while General Sherman, with the Thirteenth Army Corps, is moving up by a shorter and better one. Two corps, under Generals Howard and Slocum, are moving right up the ——— country, under direction of General Joseph Hooker. All of these combined will form the army of "Old Rosy." Knowing all of this, the prospect must be pronounced as augering well for us. Only let us have honesty, fair dealing and patriotism on the part of every official, and all will be well.

PAYING THE ARMY.—Twenty-five paymasters, with four and a half million dollars, left Cairo, Illinois, on Thursday, for the South, on the gunboat Springfield, in charge of Major Fenno. A million and a half goes to New Orleans, in charge of Major Nichols.

CINCINNATI DRINKING HOUSES TO BE CLOSED.—The Mayor of Cincinnati has, by proclamation, ordered all the drinking saloons, and other places where liquors are sold, to be closed on the day of the election. Let the same thing be done here.

To conclude with TURNING THE TABLES.

THE ORIGINAL PICTURE, FROM NIBLO'S SALOON, NEW YORK, AT MASONIC HALL, FOR A SHORT SEASON, COMMENCING WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 14th, GOODWIN & CO.'S GIGANTIC POLYORAMA OF THE WAR,

The largest, most complete and only authentic History of the Great Rebellion ever depicted on canvas, forming a perfect transcript of every event of importance from THE FIRST DREAD SIGN OF AT SUMPTER DOWN TO THE CAPTURE OF VICKSBURG.

This is the same COLOSSAL PICTURE OF THE WAR that was exhibited in Pittsburgh in January last, and gave such universal satisfaction to crowded and delighted audiences for three consecutive weeks and the same favors which marked its advent in the city also greeted its appearance in Cleveland, Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, Chicago, Baltimore, Washington and Philadelphia, the most capacious halls in those cities being insufficient to accommodate the immense throngs who flocked to witness it.

During the months of July and August, this picture was placed in the hands of the talented Artist under whose auspices it was originally produced, and nine weeks their united energies were bestowed in retouching the picture and executing new scenes of absorbing interest, which seems has been skilfully repainted, and stands forth in all the freshness and nature of its pristine beauty. The immense interest and unparalleled reputation acquired by this grand and faithful painting, brought into the field a host of formidable imitations, which have vainly endeavored to compete for the public favor. The efforts have proved utterly futile, and the press and public, with one accord, have pronounced GOODWIN & CO.'S POLYORAMA OF THE WAR UNRIVALLED AND UNAPPROACHABLE. The exhibition is now under the exclusive direction and control of Mr. ROFUS SOMERBY, who will positively appear as each exhibition and deliver an ELABORATE HISTORICAL LECTURE, the rendition of which is the principal study of the United States has extorted the unqualified approbation of the entire public. Mr. G. D. Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, in commenting upon this Lecture, awarded to Mr. Somerby the proud title of the MOST GIFTED ELOCUTIONIST OF THE DAY. Still further to increase the attractiveness of this Elegant and Refined Entertainment, Mrs. RUFUS SOMERBY, the eminent Contralto Vocalist, will introduce at each exhibition a variety of popular and appropriate songs, ballads, &c., many of them written expressly to illustrate the various deeply exciting scenes. The charm of melody are thus wedded to the painter's art, and the lectures of ARISTIDE HOUELLEMONT, (LATE ORATORY, AND REFINED MUSIC, will be presented with an entertainment which stands confessedly WITHOUT A RIVAL IN THE WORLD.

TICKETS 25 cents; Children under ten, 15 cents. Doors open at 7—commence at 7½ o'clock. GRAND MATINEES WEDNESDAY AND SATURDAYS AFTERNOONS, at 2 o'clock, when children will be admitted for 10 cents each.
