MISCELLANEOUS.

IMPORTANT TO RAILWAY COMPANIES, MILL OWNERS, &c.

We have erected and have in operation, near the city, an extensive Laboratory for the manufacture of

LUBRICATING AND PAINT OIL,

By a new and ingenuous scientific process, and now offer and commend to public notice, and patronage three grades, A, B and C respectively, of 1st, 2d and 3d quality LUBRICATING OIL.

Wherever these lubricators have been tested, they have been pronounced greatly superior to any of the preparations lately offered in the market.

The "A," or best quality is designed to take the place of the best Sperm Oil, and for use on cotton, woolen or other machinery. The "B," or 2d quality, for railway and other like machinery; and the "C," or 3d quality, for heavy and coarse gearing, &c.

The PAINT OIL has been tested by numerous Painters in this city, and proved to be a capital substitute for boiled Linseed Oil. Indeed many Painters give it a decided preference.

These Oils are now extensively manufactured at our

EUREKA LUBRIC OIL OIL WORKS.

As the process is scientific and uniform, customers can rely on its uniform excellence of these economic equivalents of Sperm and Linseed Oils. A trial and test is confidently invited.

THURSDAY MORNING.....OCT. 15, 1863.

THE returns which have reached us up to the hour of going to press, warrant us in claiming that the people of Pennsylvania and Ohio have repudiated Copperheadism and its representatives, WOODWARD and VALLANDIGHAM, by a vote that dooms it and them to irretrievable ruin. That so foul, so grovelling a monster should have lifted its head so high in this country, and in this age, may well excite our wonder; but to-day, after witnessing the battle which has just been fought, we may well rejoice that our glorious old Keystone State, and her sister State of Ohio have struck the death-dealing blow, consigning the wounded snake to its appointed place among the infamies of the past, where its memory shall rot forevermore.

The Returns

Are coming in piecemeal. It is impossible to give results, as yet; but we have sufficient information to warrant safe estimates. Our estimate of the Union majority in the State—making due allowance for possible Democratic gains in some of the dark and benighted counties from which we shall not hear, probably, for a day or two, is 25,000. If we find the votes of our true and loyal soldiers, now in the field, this would be increased to about 100,000—enough to satisfy even the most skeptical that the Keystone of the Federal Arch is not at all likely to cause the destruction of that glorious old paternal legacy.

OHIO has gone for the Union, without the vote of the soldiers, by 60,000 majority.

IOWA has gone for the Union.

INDIANA has gone for the Union by a largely increased majority.

We congratulate our loyal people on the aspect of the news, and refer them to our telegraphic columns for details.

Destitution in Virginia.

Capt. Paul, correspondent of the New York Times, writes from the Army of the Potomac:

The county of Culpepper is to-day barren of every thing to support man or beast. The only crops raised—corn and grass, with a few vegetables—have been consumed by the inhabitants, assisted by the invading force, and there is a stream of citizen-applicants every day at the Provost-Marshal General's office asking for assistance. What the poor dupes of rebellion will do this coming winter to sustain life, is more than can be ascertained now, unless their old Uncle Samuel comes to their relief. There are a few cows and pigs left yet, but when winter closes in, as there is no means of preparing them for the shambles, they will hardly be worth fattening. For the first time the strong-headed secessionists of this county are humbled, for starvation stares them in the face, and many of these people begin to realize in practice that the way of the transgressor is hard. I know people who up to quite recently have been the most ardent secessionists, who now assert that they never wanted the Union destroyed, but were forced to move along with the popular current. Those who do not admit this much, do admit—many of them at least—that the scheme of establishing a Southern Confederacy has most signally failed.

Scene in a Street Car.

The following incident is vouched for by a correspondent of the Christian Register:

A daughter of Massachusetts, living in New York, was riding in a crowded street car. An intelligent young soldier, suffering from lameness, was standing. This lady kindly offered him her seat, which he politely declined; whereupon a city dame, occupying the next place, gathered up her robes and scornfully said she thought things had come to a pretty pass when a New York lady offered her seat to a man, especially a soldier.

"Shame on you, madam," rejoined our humane friend, "have you no dear ones in the army?"

"No," was the reply, "my husband should not go."

"Indeed," was the patriotic answer, "I had rather be a soldier's widow than a coward's wife!"

An outburst of applause greeted the speaker. There was a happy finale to the incident. The lame soldier soon obtained the very next seat to the unfeeling woman who had so insulted him.

THE colony of freedmen on Island No. Ten, in the Mississippi, is in a highly prosperous condition. There are in all nine hundred persons, two hundred and twenty of whom are children at school. The colony owns a sewing machine, and there are a number of women capable of making their own garments. At Corinth there is a similar colony, numbering 2,198 men, 1,762 women and 578 children. Over 500 of the men are in the employ of the Government, 848 are employed by individuals, and some 300 are workers in the camp. There are two schools with 480 pupils, 350 of whom have learned to read. Eleven hundred men have enlisted from this colony in the United States army.

A SENSIBLE SUGGESTION.—A loyal Virginian suggests a plan for clearing the northern counties of Virginia of bushwhackers, and making all the people openly loyal, and with but little expense to the Government, which has its merits. He proposes that the land of traitors be given to discharged soldiers—say fifty acres each, and give them material aid, if necessary, to settle upon these lands. In this way and no other, (at present,) he contends, can Upper Virginia be made entirely loyal and capable of self-defence without the aid of United States troops.—Cor. N. Y. Times.

MAXIMILLIAN could organize a formidable army, it is said, with the place-hunters eager for appointments in the new empire. Thousands of applications have been made from all parts of the world; and it would require the combined fleets of France and England to convey to Mexico all the parties who offer their services.

From Nibblo's Saloon, New York, at

MASONIC HALL,

FOR A SHORT SEASON,

Commencing

WEDNESDAY, October 14th, 1863,

GOODWIN & CO.'S GIGANTIC

Polyorama of the War.

The largest, most complete and only authentic HISTORY OF THE GREAT REBELLION ever depicted on canvas, forming a perfect transcript of every event of importance from the first dread signal at Sumter down to the capture of Vicksburg.

This is the same COLOSSAL PICTURE OF THE WAR that was exhibited in Pittsburgh in January last, and gave such universal satisfaction to crowded and delighted audiences for three consecutive weeks: and the same furore which marked its advent in this city also greeted its appearance in Cleveland, Cincinnati, Louisville, St. Louis, Chicago, Baltimore, Washington and Philadelphia, the most capacious halls in these cities being insufficient to accommodate the immense throngs which flocked to witness it.

During the months of July and August, this Picture was placed in the hands of the talented Artists under whose auspices it was originally produced, and for nine weeks their untired energies were bestowed in retouching the picture and executing new pieces of absorbing interest. Each scene has been entirely repainted, and stands forth in all the freshness and lustre of its pristine beauty. The immense success and unparalleled reputation acquired by this matchless painting, brought into the field a host of miserable imitations, which have vainly endeavored to compete for the public favor. The efforts have proved utterly futile, and the press and public, with one accord, have pronounced GOODWIN & CO.'S POLYORAMA OF THE WAR unrivalled and unsurpassable. The exhibition is now under the exclusive direction and control of Mr. RUFUS SOMERBY, who will positively appear at each exhibition and deliver an elaborate Historical Lecture, the rendition of which, in the principal cities of the United States, has extorted the unqualified approbation of the entire public. Mr. Geo. D. Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, in commenting upon this Lecture, awarded to Mr. Somerby the proud title of the MOST GIFTED ELOCUTIONIST OF THE DAY. Still further to increase the attractiveness of the elegant and refined entertainment, Mrs. RUFUS SOMERBY, the eminent Contralto Vocalist, will introduce, at each exhibition, a variety of popular and appropriate songs, ballads, &c., many of them written expressly to illustrate the various deeply exciting scenes. The charms of melody are thus wedded to the painters' art, and the lovers of ARTISTIC EXCELLENCE, CLASSIC ORATORY and REFINED MUSIC will be presented with an entertainment which stands confessedly WITHOUT A RIVAL IN THE WORLD.

☞ Tickets, 25 CENTS; Children under ten, 15 CENTS. Doors open at 7, commence at 7½ o'clock. Grand Matinees WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY AFTERNOONS, at 3 o'clock, when children will be admitted for 10 cents each.
