FINED.—A man named "Bony" Finrman, residing in Allegheny, was arrested on Monday night, in the act of throwing a stone or brick-bat into the Union toreh-light procession. Mayor Alexander fined him $20 and costs, which sum was raised by his Copperhead friends. From Yesterday's Evening Edition. The Fire in the Diamond—Loss Between $50,000 and $60,000. We have already reported briefly a destructive fire which occurred in the Diamond, Wedo'clock. We give to day the following details:

The fire was discovered in the second story of the building occupied by Mr. Wm. Haslage, grocer and ten dealer, No. 15 Diamond. The flames spread rather slowly, and had it not been for the numerous bondres in the city, in consequence of the election, the firemen would THE HOPE STEAM FIRE ENGINE, of Alleghenesday morning, between twelve and one been for the numerous bondres in the city, in consequence of the election, the firemen would have been more promptly on the ground. The fire gotsuch headway, however, that the building was gutted, and the entire stock badly damaged. The stock on hand was very large—estimated to be worth $\frac{15}{6},000 \text{ or $\frac{50}{6},000}$. The insurance is light, being but $15,000, equally divided between the "German," the "Reliance," and the "Delaware Mutual."

Copperheads vs. Soldlers.

We learn that a serious fight occurred at Hillsborough, Washington county, a few dayago, during the progress of a Copperhead meriting. Three soldiers belonging to the Greenfield cavalry were present at the meeting. Their prosence seemed to be eye-sore to the Butternuts, who crowed around them in great numbers. A quarral ensued, when ode at the soldiers was knocked down with a club. Another of the blue coats then drew a piston and shot twice at a man named Brady, who and store was wholed it was discovered that three mer row subsided it was discovered that three mer had been shot and slightly wounded. Two of the soldiers have been arrested, but the own he is known to have done the shoating made his escape. During the hearing of the soldiers at the magistrate's office in Washington, a number of Bradys belonging to a finotrious Copperheaded family, clamored bouldy for repe and eried vigorously for the blood of the soldiers, but they found nobody willing to second them in their lawlessness.

ATTEND TO YOUR COLDS .- A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTO-RAL SYRUP:

DR. KEYSER: My wife has been afflicted with a bad cough and difficulty of breathing for five years, which for soveral years back had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and he had been treated by several physicians with she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case, I procured some of your Pectoral Cough Syrup. I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much; I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself to a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose, I express my entire satisfaction with the medic you are at liberty to publish this if you desire to de Alderman, Fifth Ward. Pirrssuggn, Nov. 18, 1858. Kaysen: I have been, more or less, in my life, affected with the severest of colds and horseness.

At times my threat would become so closed as to provent my speaking above a whisper, and by taking a few does of the above Syrup it would relieve mo ingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found, purporting to cure the above, nor should say family be without this remedy for diseases so provalent.

Yours, most respectfully, EDWARD J. JONES, Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank. COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL DE. Exysen—Dear Sir: Excuse the delay in my acknowledging the excellence of your Fectoral Cough Syrup sconer. I take great pleasure in say-ing that it is all you say it is. It knocked the soles at of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflict out of my couch, and the worst one I was ever amer-ed with. I have not used more than one-half of the bottle, and I can and do wish; that all who are af-fileted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack med-ne," I would not suffer another such an attack for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident for any consideration, or at any cost. I am confident I can broathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventso excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use name in this regard, as you think proper. E. P. PRATT. Messenger Common Council, Pittsburgh.
