The "Confidence" Man.

Wm. Thomas, whose arrest we have already reported, on a charge of swindling Mr. F. Langkamp out of eleven dollars, had a hearing before Mayor Alexander, and was committed to jail to answer at Court. Two other cases were brought to light. Thomas had entered the clothing store of Wm. Dunker, on Liberty street, where he deposited a sealed package, addressed to a man in New York, in care of the German Savings Bank. On one corner of the package was marked the amount of money ($430) which it was supposed to contain. After leaving this in the store for an hour or two, Thomas came back, and under protence of lacking ten dollars to complete a purchase of grain, he diddled Mr. Dunker out of that amount. The package was never called for, and it was not opened until after his arrest. It contained nothing but paper. Thomas Clark, clerk at the Mansion House, was swindled out of five dollars, in a similar manner. Commitments were lodged in both these cases.

The Criminal Court.

TUESDAY, Nov. 3.—Judges Mellon, Stowe and Brown.

Richard Murphy was convicted of the larceny of a pair of pants and an umbrella. Motion made for a new trial.

Adam Oxenhart was tried for the larceny of a hog, the property of Mr. Linderman, but the jury failed to agree up to the hour of adjournment.

George Massoy, colored, was convicted of assault and battery, and sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and costs.

Henry Holler was convicted on two charges of larceny, and sentenced to two years in the penitentiary.

Joseph Davis, (colored,) was tried on a charge of larceny and acquitted.

John Weaver, Jr., was convicted of petty larceny, and sentenced to two months in jail.

Adam Hertzberger was convicted of larceny, and remanded for sentence.

Lavinia Williams, Joseph Davis, and John Jackson, (colored,) were placed on trial for receiving stolen goods. The case was not concluded at the hour of adjournment.

Bogus Recruiting Officers.

The public are cautioned against two or three individuals who, without the slightest authority from the Government, have opened recruiting offices in this city and in Allegheny, offering the regular bounty, advance pay, etc., guaranteed by the Government. Handbills have been issued by these parties, and one of them professes to have authority to raise an Independent Cavalry Company! It is needless to say that no such authority has been given by the War Department, and all persons wishing to enlist must make their applications to the regular agents, Messrs. J. C. Sproul and C. W. Lewis, whose office is at No. 98 Fourth street, near Wood. An advertisement from Capt. J. Heron Foster, giving authentic information on this subject, will be found in another column.

RACE AT COLLINS PARK.—An exciting race took place at Collins Park, yesterday afternoon, between the horse "Shamrock," entered by J. Beitler, and "Soft Soap," entered by Felix Laverty. The race was exceedingly well contested. The first heat was won by "Shamrock" in 2:47; second heat by "Soft Soap" in 2:40; third heat by "Shamrock" in 2:39; fourth and fifth heat by "Soft Soap" in 2:38 and 2:46. The attendance was quite large, and considerable sums of money changed hands on the result. The race was for a purse of $400.

ARRIVAL OF EXCHANGED PRISONERS.—Five hundred and eighty-two prisoners, most of whom were captured at the battles of Fredericksburg and Chancellorville, arrived in the city last night, at eleven o'clock, from Washington, and after being fed at City Hall, by the Subsistence Committee, they took a special train for the west, en route for Chattanooga. They all belong to the 11th and 12th Corps, which have been transferred to the west since their capture.

CONDUCTOR IN LUCK.—We learn that Samuel McCleery, Esq., late a conductor on the P. Ft. W. & C. R. R. has discovered an extensive deposit of excellent bituminous coal, on the line of the road, on the Myer's farm, about 1¼ miles west of Massillon, O. He has been fortunate enough to lease a large tract of land, overlying the coal deposit, and will, no doubt, make a handsome thing out of the discovery. The coal is said to be of an excellent quality.

THE BELL RINGERS.—The second entertainment given by the Swiss Bell Ringers, at concert Hall, was largely attended, and everybody present was delighted with the chaste and unique performances. Those who wish to spend an evening, cannot find more pleasing enjoyment than in listening to the Bell Ringers. They give a matinee at three o'clock this afternoon, and perform every evening during the week.

HUGH BELLAS, a well-known lawyer of Sunbury, Pa., died on the 26th ult. Mr. Bellas was, in early life, an active politician, and soon after his admission to the bar, was appointed to the office of Prothonotary of Northumberland county, when that county embraced Union, Snyder and Columbia within its limits.

THE KING AND MCHENRY CASE.—Dr. King wishes us to state that he was in his own office when Captain McHenry threatened to shoot him for putting his head out of the window. His office, however, is in the same building with the Provost Marshal's office. The further hearing in the case has been postponed until the return of District Attorney Carnahan.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION.—On Saturday night last an attempt was made to assassinate Mr. Daniel Kane, of Uniontown. While he was in the act of unlocking his own door, some person fired a pistol at him, the ball cutting the skin on the upper lip. A similar attempt was made upon his life some time ago, and he has no knowledge as to who the would-be murderer is.

BANK DIVIDENDS.—The banks of issue yesterday declared the following dividends: Bank of Pittsburgh, four per cent; Iron City Bank, five per cent; Exchange Bank, five per cent; Allegheny Bank, four per cent; Merchants and Manufacturers, four per cent; and Mechanics four per cent.

OIL REFINERY BURNED.—The oil refinery of Messrs. Smith and Naylor, located at Lawrenceville, was entirely destroyed by fire, yesterday evening, between five and six o'clock. We did not ascertain the origin of the fire, or the amount of the loss.

SERIOUS ILLNESS OF COL. PRATT.—We regret to learn that Col. E. F. Pratt, the well known Messenger to Councils, is now lying at his residence in the Third Ward, suffering from a serious affection of the lungs. He took ill on Wednesday last, and has been growing worse ever since.

TRAINS DELAYED.—The Philadelphia Mail and Baltimore Express trains, due here on Tuesday at noon, were detained two or three hours, in consequence of a freight train running off the track at Jack's Narrows, on the Juniata river.

MISS CHARLOTTE THOMPSON drew a large audience to the theatre, last evening, to witness her admirable rendition of "Juliet," in Shakspeare's tragedy of "Romeo and Juliet." To-night she appears as "Pauline," in the beautiful play of "The Lady of Lyons."

At a meeting of the Christian Commission, held in Philadelphia, Oct. 15, measures were adopted by which the general work will be combined, energized, and in every way rendered more efficient. A more extended, systematic and thorough organization of the forces, and the enlargement of its operations, on a scale commensurate with the greatness of the cause, was determined on.

The Commission relies confidently upon the unbounded sympathy, and most generous support of all the people of God, who love His cause, their country, and the souls of men.

FLOWER, FRUIT, AND THORN PIECES; or, The Married Life, Death, and Wedding of the Advocate of the Poor, Firmian Stanislaus Siebenkas. By Jean Paul Freidrich Richter. Translated from the German by Edward Henry Noel. With a Memoir of the Author by Thomas Carlyle. In Two Volumes. Boston: Ticknor & Fields. 1863. Pittsburgh: for sale by Henry Miner, Fifth street, (next door to the Post Office;) and by R. S. Davis, 93 Wood street. 361 and 345pp. 16mo.

Among his own countrymen, we believe, "Titan" is considered Jean Paul's masterpiece as a romance or novel; but judging by far other standards of art-workmanship, readers in this country will generally, we presume, give the preference to this book and its hero, Leibenkas—in which and in whom this wonderful humorist—this strangest, gentlest of philosophers—will be more readily apprehended and more thoroughly enjoyed by those accustomed only to the forms and usages of English or French literature. Be this as it may, however, we have here from the same eminent Boston publishers who recently gave us the first English translation of "Titan," these companion volumes—which, we cannot doubt, will be at least as welcome to the American public, as an unexpected and almost unprecedented sale has proved that their predecessors must have been. Those who have read "Titan," and will read this, will be ready to join with us in urging Mr. Brooks to apply himself to his work, and enable us to read "Hesperus" also, as he has promised. We close this brief notice with the remark, that, if we desired to introduce Richter for the first time to an American or English reader, we should not open "Titan," but the present work, and read therein some of the noblest passages, in our judgment, which can be found in all his writings:—and we may mention the first "Flower Piece," with its wonderful, terrible sublimity of thought and imagery—with its profound beneficence of purpose and doctrine—as one of these.

THE ARMER GOD, and Other Stories. By Harriet Elizabeth Prescott. Boston: Ticknor and Fields. Pittsburgh: for sale by Henry Miner, Fifth street, (next door to the Postoffice.) 432pp. 16mo.

Few writers of either sex, who denote themselves to that department of literary effort, which delights that two-thirds majority of modern readers who read nothing but stories, have greater or more varied resources for achieving all the success that can crown ambition, within any reasonable bounds of ambitious striving, than Miss Prescott. The readers of the Atlantic Monthly, whose pages are often enriched with the contributions of her pen, will probably recognize some of the stories in this volume;—but none will more appreciatively welcome them, in their present beautiful dress of tinted paper and exquisite typography, than those who already know how worthy they are to receive such honor.

THE LATEST NEWS
BY TELEGRAPH.

OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES.
FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.
WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 3d, 1863.

DISPATCHES DELAYED.

Owing to the storms on the western lines the following dispatches failed to get through last night:

GENERAL BUTLER'S DEPARTMENT.

The order for General Butler to relieve General Foster at Fortress Monroe is published. The Navy Department express gratification at the change, and Admiral Lee in particular, exresses a hope that the new military administration may infuse vigor into the operations there. Negroes are to be collected and organized into regiments as rapidly as possible. Gen. Foster is not expected to remain here in command of the defenses, as has been reported.

A FALSE REPORT REFUTED.

As the tory papers of New York are busy reiterating the charge, it is proper to repeat that not a single able-bodied soldier has been sent home to New York from Gen. Meade's army. Plenty of invalids, however, are going from here, and no doubt is entertained but that they will all vote to-morrow.

TO TAKE THE OATH OF ALLEGIANCE.

Gen. Schenck has issued an order requiring voters to take the oath of allegiance in Maryland, if called upon to do so. He was here today in consultation with the President about it.

BOUNTY TO VETERAN VOLUNTEERS.

The War Department announces in general orders, that the one hundred dollars bounty due at the expiration of the enlisted men, will be paid by paymasters to veteran volunteers remaining, upon the usual discharge papers, from their first enlistment.

RESIGNED.

Hower G. Plantz, of Ohio, private Secretary to Secretary Chase, has resigned his position to accept the appointment of District Attorney of Florida. He will leave for his new post in a few days. J. H. Schacher, of Ohio, succeeds him as private secretary.

RESIGNATION OF GEN. GARFIELD.

A few weeks after the battle of Chickamauga, Gen. Garfield forwarded his resignation to the War Department, accompanying it with a statement that he would either take his seat in Congress or remain in the field, as the government might think best. He had received no reply to this till he came on here, and hearing of Gen. Rosecrans' official report and endeavoring to have another Ohio General promoted, it was very much his own astonishment, therefore, that he to-day received the answer to his resignation from Secretary Stanton in the shape of a commission as Major General, tendered for gallantry and meritorious service at the battle of Chickamauga.

EXTRACT FROM A PRIVATE LETTER FROM GEN. ROSECRANS.

The following is an extract from a strictly private letter received here from Gen. Rosecrans to-day, and I have no right to make it public, but I venture to take the responsibility:

"As to my remand from the command of the Army of the Cumberland, I have only to say that I pray God that the country may be as well and better served by another. As for the infamous lies which are put forth through the press to blast my reputation—such as disability, mental disease, the use of opium, disobedience of orders in not advancing when ordered, in waiting for reinforcements, etc., etc.—if I thought they came from our government, I would despair of the nation headed by such a government. That people will accept them, or that the government will prosper these authors, I do not believe. Personally I commend myself to the Just and Merciful One, who knows what is for the best for me."

CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS.

U. S. Treasurer Spinner to-day received instructions from Secretary Chase to announce that certificates of indebtedness bearing interest payable in coin, will be paid on presentation with interest up to date. This includes the third of March certificates. All others having interest are payable in coin. No such significant illustration has hitherto been given of the remarkably easy condition of the national finances, as this proposition to pay of debts before their maturity; and to stop the interest in coin.

NATIONAL BANK.

The Third National Bank of Cincinnati, Ohio, was to-day made a permanent depository of the U. S. Treasury. It deposited its bonds to-day, and is authorized to receive permanent deposits to amount of three hundred thousand dollars.

STRIKE AMONG THE WORKMEN ON THE TREASURY EXTENSION.

The strike among the laborers on the Treasury extension to-day, on account of dissatisfaction with the treatment they receive from the supervising architect, was finally appealed to Secretary Chase, and they went to work again, awaiting his decision.

VESSELS BUILDING.

The Navy Department is building twenty wooden vessels and twelve swift clippers, carrying light batteries, and eight are designed to combine swiftness and effectiveness, and to be armed with twenty guns of nine inch calibre, of 3,000 tons capacity, and to be completed in a year.

IN COMMAND OF THE VICKSBURG DEFENSES.

The defenses of Vicksburg are now in charge of Capt. John M. Wilson, U. S. Engineers.

EMERSON ETHERIDGE.

Letters from West Tennessee, from friends of Emerson Etheridge there, are accounting for his late extraordinary course by saying that he must have become partially insane.

NOT COMING HOME.

Dahlgren is probably not coming home much better than when he applied for leave of absence, which was granted if his health required.

The Elections in New York, Massachusetts, New Jersey and Missouri.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3d, 1863.

We have sufficient returns from New York State to show a majority of 20,000 to 30,000 for the Republican ticket in the State. New York city runs 10,000 behind the usual Democratic vote.

In Boston the vote was small, but the Republicans made a clean sweep. The Democrats have not elected a single Senator, and very few Assembly men.

New Jersey has probably gone Democratic.

The entire Union ticket at Hanibal Mo., was elected. W. J. J

From Cairo—Reported Removal of the Rebel Gen. Chalmers from his Command—Capture of the First Alabama (Loyal) Regiment.

CAIRO, Nov. 2.—The steamer Anderson, with two hundred bales of cotton and Memphis dates to the 31st, has arrived. A report is current that the rebel Gen. Chalmers is relieved from his command, and that Gen. Forrest was appointed in his stead; it is also stated that Forrest has received instructions from Joe Johnston to burn all the cotton that is within the limits of his command.

From dates to the 29th state that the First Alabama Cavalry regiment (loyal,) about eight hundred strong, were sent recently to destroy the railroad communication near Tallanda, but were surrounded by a largely superior force and most of them were captured.

Massachusetts Election.

BOSTON, Nov. 3—2 o'clock, p. m.—Additional returns indicate that the Republicans have carried Massachusetts by a larger majority than was anticipated.

BOSTON, Nov. 3—3 p. m.—The vote in this State to-day was comparatively small, but the Republicans have made nearly a complete sweep of everything. In Boston the complete vote for Governor foots up as follows: Andrews 6,321, Payne 3,603—Republican gain on the vote of last year. It is doubtful whether the opposition have elected more than six representatives to the Legislature, and they will probably not elect a single Senator. Last year the opposition vote was 54,000, now it will hardly reach 30,000. Outside of Boston, we don't hear of the election of a single opposition representative. It is believed that the Senate will be unanimously Union.

New York Cattle Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The Cattle Market has been harder for Drovers than last week, and though some of our rates, and the average of all the sales, are a trifle higher, it is owing to a larger amount of first class animals. The decline of Monday afternoon and Tuesday morning have brought prices back to the closing sales of last Tuesday, and in some instances even lower. The number taken by the Government agent was about 175 head, a majority of which it was estimated would average 10 cwt. Prime Heavy Veals are scarce and in good demand, and firm. Sheep and Lambs—receipts quite large, many being left over from Saturday, and with an unsettled business for the week there was considerable dullness at the opening. Lambs are also lower. Sheep, live, 4½@4¾c for Inferior and Common, 5@5¾c for Fair to Good, 5¾@6¼c for Prime First Class; a very few choice Extra lots will average 6. Lambs will range from $3 00 to $9 50 for Inferior, $4 00 to $4 50 for Common to Good, Choice lots $5 00@6 50, the average 7 lb pound ranging from 5¾ to 7c. Receipts of Swine have been unusually large, completely filling the pens, and many carded outside; the market is said to be very dull, owing to a difficulty between Killers and Packers, and prices are lower and heavy. Receipts of Beeves 6,065; Cows 116; Veal Calves 1,07—; Sheep and Lambs 1,675; Swine 36,225.
