Death of Thomas Rattigan—Coroner's Inquest.

On Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock, Coroner Meng appointed a jury, at the office of Alderman Donaldson, and proceeded to investigate the circumstances connected with the death of Thomas Rattigan.

Dr. A. C. Murdoch was called and testified in substance that he was called upon by one and two o'clock, Sabbath morning, the 15th inst., to attend a man at the Mayor's office. He did not recognize the man at first, but soon discovered that it was Mr. Rattigan, whom he had known for many years.

He was covered with blood, which had flowed from wounds upon the head. His face was so covered with congealed blood that he could not recognize his features. The man was under the impression that the blood upon his face was from a fall, and that the injuries had been inflicted at a place near the city.

John S. Adams testified that Mr. Rattigan left his office at the Monongahela River, Water street, between 10 and 11 o'clock, on Saturday, the 15th inst., as though he intended going to his dinner. He left his home at 11 o'clock, on Sunday, the 16th inst., and after seven o'clock in the evening, he was seen by St. Paul in his great coat, with the key, and this was the last time that he was seen.

On the 17th inst., the body of Mr. Rattigan was found on the bridge. It was found in a hole in the bridge, and was covered with blood. The body was found in a hole in the bridge, and was covered with blood.

Relief for the Prisoners at Richmond—Important Information.

The United States Christian Commission has received a circular containing the following important information concerning the prisoners at Richmond, Virginia.

Letters should be written on a half sheet of paper, and only on one side. They should relate solely to matters purely domestic. Include the letter in an unsealed envelope and put in five cents for postage. Address it to the person for whom it is intended, giving his company, regiment, and the prison in which he is confined.

Money—Money to be sent in the same manner as letters. It will be taken in charge by the relief authorities at the prison, and given little by little to the person for whom it is intended.

Church Music.—Mr. John Zander, organist of Plymouth Church, Rev. H. W. Decker, and editor of the Monthly Church and Home Journal, New York, will visit this city, in a short time, for the purpose of giving instruction on the subject of church music.
