

The News.

At no time during this war has the progress of events been more rapid than during the past few days. Grant has been planing...

Grant's column moves with such celerity and certainty, that almost as soon as we have searched out the explanation of the movement...

Altogether the prospect is very cheering and hopeful. A few more such blows as that dealt by Grant at Chattanooga, and a few more such masterly strokes of strategy...

Our soldiers are doing their part bravely, but they need reinforcements. Shall they have them? Shall more volunteers rush to their aid...

Mr. John Rankin on English Neutrality. The following characteristic letter, dated Zurich, 26th October, 1863, was received from Mr. Rankin...

There are a few States in the West that allow their children to be baptized in infancy. It is almost without precedent that the full ceremony of baptism should be performed...

There is a Union majority of 66,000 in a vote of 79,114; or more than ninety-two per cent in favor of the Union. Yet the Democrats do all the fighting—of course...

THE REBEL FOREIGN RELATIONS. The Richmond Agency is disgusted with the foreign policy of the rebel authorities. Commenting on the letter of Mr. De Leon...

How to Improve a Victory.
