

Pittsburgh Gazette.

TERMS OF THE GAZETTE. Monthly, $1.00; quarterly, $3.00; semi-annually, $5.00; annually, $10.00. Single copies, 5 cents.

OUR RHICHMOND PRISONERS.

A Pittsburgher's Experience in Libby Prison. Interlocking Richmond. How our Prisoners were treated. Harshness of the Rebels. The Plot to Escape and Destroy Richmond. How it was Defeated. A Traitor in the Prison, &c., &c.

The following interesting narrative is from the pen of Andrew Ferguson W. Myers, of the U. S. Navy, and late of the U. S. Army, who was confined in Libby Prison for seven months, being detained at his headquarters for Dr. Green, of the Confederate Army.

At such a moment every reflective mind can appreciate the feelings of the prisoners. It was natural I should feel gloomy, but I did not give way to that despondency of spirit which is so common among the prisoners.

There are confined in the Libby prison other well-to-do citizens, representing all grades of social position. The Libby prison is a large building, containing several hundred prisoners.

It is in this treatment that prisoners of war from a civilized class of people are treated. The Libby prison is a large building, containing several hundred prisoners.

After arriving at Raleigh, and interrogated by the rebels, I was sent to Germantown. A description of the prison, about two miles from Raleigh, was given to me by one of the rebels.

many Union men, and should judge from the tone of their conversation they would love to see peace declared, and this cruel and unchristianlike war over, at almost any sacrifice.

What, then, shall we do? It has been proposed to make a list of names of the prisoners, and to send them to the States.

Not only our private but officers of every rank are compelled to perform the most menial labor. Upon the most trifling charges they are liable to be confined for several days.

It will seem almost incredible when I state of my own personal knowledge that I have seen some of the prisoners who were weak to stand without support, and their features distorted and blackened from starvation.

At such a moment every reflective mind can appreciate the feelings of the prisoners. It was natural I should feel gloomy, but I did not give way to that despondency of spirit which is so common among the prisoners.

There are confined in the Libby prison other well-to-do citizens, representing all grades of social position. The Libby prison is a large building, containing several hundred prisoners.

It is in this treatment that prisoners of war from a civilized class of people are treated. The Libby prison is a large building, containing several hundred prisoners.

After arriving at Raleigh, and interrogated by the rebels, I was sent to Germantown. A description of the prison, about two miles from Raleigh, was given to me by one of the rebels.

upon Belle Isle, a soldier suffering from diarrhea having passed into the water, was hailed by the guard, and being too weak to walk, he fell exhausted from weakness and disease.

What, then, shall we do? It has been proposed to make a list of names of the prisoners, and to send them to the States.

Not only our private but officers of every rank are compelled to perform the most menial labor. Upon the most trifling charges they are liable to be confined for several days.

It will seem almost incredible when I state of my own personal knowledge that I have seen some of the prisoners who were weak to stand without support, and their features distorted and blackened from starvation.

At such a moment every reflective mind can appreciate the feelings of the prisoners. It was natural I should feel gloomy, but I did not give way to that despondency of spirit which is so common among the prisoners.

There are confined in the Libby prison other well-to-do citizens, representing all grades of social position. The Libby prison is a large building, containing several hundred prisoners.

It is in this treatment that prisoners of war from a civilized class of people are treated. The Libby prison is a large building, containing several hundred prisoners.

After arriving at Raleigh, and interrogated by the rebels, I was sent to Germantown. A description of the prison, about two miles from Raleigh, was given to me by one of the rebels.

divided different groups, one was detailed to ride the picket line by the canal bank while another rode up into the city, seized the whole rebel column, and conveyed them to the gunboat, and then down past Drury's Bluff.

What, then, shall we do? It has been proposed to make a list of names of the prisoners, and to send them to the States.

Not only our private but officers of every rank are compelled to perform the most menial labor. Upon the most trifling charges they are liable to be confined for several days.

It will seem almost incredible when I state of my own personal knowledge that I have seen some of the prisoners who were weak to stand without support, and their features distorted and blackened from starvation.

At such a moment every reflective mind can appreciate the feelings of the prisoners. It was natural I should feel gloomy, but I did not give way to that despondency of spirit which is so common among the prisoners.

There are confined in the Libby prison other well-to-do citizens, representing all grades of social position. The Libby prison is a large building, containing several hundred prisoners.

It is in this treatment that prisoners of war from a civilized class of people are treated. The Libby prison is a large building, containing several hundred prisoners.

After arriving at Raleigh, and interrogated by the rebels, I was sent to Germantown. A description of the prison, about two miles from Raleigh, was given to me by one of the rebels.

REINFORCEMENT OF BRAGG CONFIRMED.

The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville. Fight Between Gen. Foster and Gen. Longstreet. Heavy Loss of the Enemy.

Reinforcement of Bragg Confirmed. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Reinforcement of Bragg Confirmed. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Reinforcement of Bragg Confirmed. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Reinforcement of Bragg Confirmed. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Reinforcement of Bragg Confirmed. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Reinforcement of Bragg Confirmed. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Reinforcement of Bragg Confirmed. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

DEATH OF GENERAL BRECKINRIDGE.

The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville. Fight Between Gen. Foster and Gen. Longstreet. Heavy Loss of the Enemy.

Death of General Breckinridge. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Death of General Breckinridge. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Death of General Breckinridge. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Death of General Breckinridge. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Death of General Breckinridge. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Death of General Breckinridge. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

Death of General Breckinridge. The Fight Near Knoxville on Sunday. The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville.

SHERIFF'S SALES.

Sheriff's Sales. By virtue of a writ of execution issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pa., and to the Sheriff of said county directed, there will be exposed to Public Sale, at the Courthouse, in the City of Pittsburgh, in said county, on Monday, the 20th day of December, Anno Domini 1863, at 10 o'clock a. m. the following described real estate, to wit:

Sheriff's Sales. By virtue of a writ of execution issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pa., and to the Sheriff of said county directed, there will be exposed to Public Sale, at the Courthouse, in the City of Pittsburgh, in said county, on Monday, the 20th day of December, Anno Domini 1863, at 10 o'clock a. m. the following described real estate, to wit:

Sheriff's Sales. By virtue of a writ of execution issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pa., and to the Sheriff of said county directed, there will be exposed to Public Sale, at the Courthouse, in the City of Pittsburgh, in said county, on Monday, the 20th day of December, Anno Domini 1863, at 10 o'clock a. m. the following described real estate, to wit:

Sheriff's Sales. By virtue of a writ of execution issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pa., and to the Sheriff of said county directed, there will be exposed to Public Sale, at the Courthouse, in the City of Pittsburgh, in said county, on Monday, the 20th day of December, Anno Domini 1863, at 10 o'clock a. m. the following described real estate, to wit:

Sheriff's Sales. By virtue of a writ of execution issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pa., and to the Sheriff of said county directed, there will be exposed to Public Sale, at the Courthouse, in the City of Pittsburgh, in said county, on Monday, the 20th day of December, Anno Domini 1863, at 10 o'clock a. m. the following described real estate, to wit:

Sheriff's Sales. By virtue of a writ of execution issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pa., and to the Sheriff of said county directed, there will be exposed to Public Sale, at the Courthouse, in the City of Pittsburgh, in said county, on Monday, the 20th day of December, Anno Domini 1863, at 10 o'clock a. m. the following described real estate, to wit:

Sheriff's Sales. By virtue of a writ of execution issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pa., and to the Sheriff of said county directed, there will be exposed to Public Sale, at the Courthouse, in the City of Pittsburgh, in said county, on Monday, the 20th day of December, Anno Domini 1863, at 10 o'clock a. m. the following described real estate, to wit:

Sheriff's Sales. By virtue of a writ of execution issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Allegheny County, Pa., and to the Sheriff of said county directed, there will be exposed to Public Sale, at the Courthouse, in the City of Pittsburgh, in said county, on Monday, the 20th day of December, Anno Domini 1863, at 10 o'clock a. m. the following described real estate, to wit:

REBELS REPULED AT KNOXVILLE.

The Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville. Fight Between Gen. Foster and Gen. Longstreet. Heavy Loss of the Enemy.

Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville. Fight Between Gen. Foster and Gen. Longstreet. Heavy Loss of the Enemy.

Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville. Fight Between Gen. Foster and Gen. Longstreet. Heavy Loss of the Enemy.

Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville. Fight Between Gen. Foster and Gen. Longstreet. Heavy Loss of the Enemy.

Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville. Fight Between Gen. Foster and Gen. Longstreet. Heavy Loss of the Enemy.

Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville. Fight Between Gen. Foster and Gen. Longstreet. Heavy Loss of the Enemy.

Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville. Fight Between Gen. Foster and Gen. Longstreet. Heavy Loss of the Enemy.

Rebels Repulsed at Knoxville. Fight Between Gen. Foster and Gen. Longstreet. Heavy Loss of the Enemy.