

Albany, N. Y., Monday, Dec. 24, 1918.

RELIGIOUS SUMMARY.

According to an editorial article of a religious weekly published in this city, on the subject of Protestantism, membership and controlling influence of such body, over one-fourth of the population of the entire country are under the influence of the American religion, or Methodism.

The following list of the representatives of the membership of 1,081,807, estimated as follows: The Methodist Episcopal Church, 624,044 members; the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, 409,694; United Brethren in Christ, 102,888; the Methodist Protestant Church, 90,000; Evangelical Association, 46,000; Wesleyan Methodist, 21,000; and African Methodist, 20,000. All these numbers give a total of 1,708,674.

Five times this sum, or 8,547,370 shows the membership of the United States. It is estimated as follows: 1,081,807, or nearly one-fourth of the entire population of the country, are educated in immersion views. The Calvinistic sentiment ranks next in the number of adherents, with 1,000,000, or nearly one-fourth of the entire population of the country, are educated in immersion views.

The Executive Committee of Foreign Missions, under the direction of the General Assembly of the (S. S.) Presbyterian Church, call for collection in the churches of that denomination, in aid of the cause of Foreign Missions, on the first Sabbath in January.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

From Saturday's Evening Edition.

Allegany Ladies' Aid Society.

The President of the Allegany Ladies' Aid Society, Mrs. E. N. Brown, has this week received a letter from the wife of Gen. Robert G. Allen, in which she writes of the following extract from which we learn that she is a member of the society.

"I have, alas!—If you have any society for the relief of the poor, please call their attention to this point as one of the most needful. I promise myself to be one of the number of ladies who will assist regularly twice a week, and will do so as long as I am able to do so."

The United States Hospital. A day of two was spent in the United States Hospital at this place, comprising the treatment of which were subjected by some of the most distinguished surgeons of the country.

Christians. Passed over the river and across the two cities, and so far as we have been able to learn no accident of a serious nature occurred. The pleasure of the excursion was enhanced by the fact that the weather was so favorable.

Distressing Accident—Man Killed. An accident of the most distressing nature occurred this morning about 11 o'clock, on Liberty street, opposite the post office.
