RIVER INTELLIGENCE. DRY GOODS, Ac. THE LATEST NEWS RAEGAINS! The weather, although still very cold, has a of materially since our last report, and a light and w fell at intervals during Sunday night and Monday. There was but little floating ice in the Alleghery tver last evening and the presumption is that it is rozan over between here and Freeport. The Mo-Winter Dress Goods iferen over between here and response the ano-mongable is completely locked up shows the dam, and podestrians are crossing and recrossing on the low. The Ohlo river, we believe, is still open; at least we have beard mothing to the contrary. So far as steamboating is concerned, however, it might as "well be clored, as it is full of heavy floating los, and bealdes the watter igerting eavy shallow. It is hard. J. M. BURCHFIELD'S WARHINGTON CITY, Jan. 4, 1864. It is predicted that the policy of Beerstary Bianton to get back into the service all the veterans, by heavy pecuniary rewards, will be adopted, in spite of Mr. Chase's econom-ical views in behalf of the Treasury.
