Mr. Seward to Charge d'Affairs Perry, Sep-tomber 3, 1863, says ... "The President is pleased with the assurance from the Marquis de Miratlores that the government of Bpain still adhores to its policy of withholding re-oognition from the insurgents." After stating that Mr. Perry has not errod in bringing to the knowledge of the Marquis the bearing of the present civil war upon the question of slavery, at home as well abroad, Mr. Sowards says :-referring to the proposed consolidation of the cities, beroughs, and villages, now sometimes arbitrarily called PITTSBURGH, but always written down in becks and public ments under half-a-dozen of names, quotes a portion of our article on the subject which appeared a few days ago, and
