The Concert Last Night.

The Concertiast night by the choir of the M. E. Church for the benefit of the Subsistance mittee of Pittsburgh, was very large attended by an attentive and apprec andlanca. It was a success in every sense (the word, not only pecuniarily, but as a musi sical treat, and otherwise. To enter into d tail of the performances would be unnocessary, and it will only be sufficient to say that al performed their parts admirably. A colos-
