arrival of the 55th Regiment, at that place, says: As Col. Dick White marched at the says: As Col. Dick White marched at the bead of his veterans, the 55th Regiment P. V., through the streets of the capital of his native State, the occasion was made one of congratulation, and among those who seemed most ardent in their welcome, we noticed men who have been encouraging the minority in the Senate, to persist in their mean efforts to take advantage of the absence of Major Harry White, a brother of Col. Dick. What must be exited Colonel think of the demagogues who seek to turn the imprisonment of his no-ble brother to political account? He cannot fail, cortainly, to treat such mon with disdain and hold them accountable for the beastliness with which his brother is now treated. Had with which his brother is now treased. Had it not been for the Copperheads who infest Harrisburg and who have seats in the Legislature, Harry White would have been in Harrisburg to-day to greet the return of his noble brother, Col. Dick White.

Bt. Peter's Church Difficulty. We have been furnished with a pamphie entitled, "Address to the Parishioners of St. Peter's Church, Pittsburgh," which purposts to be a reply to certain resolution subproduced by a majority of the vestry some time since, and published in two or three of the city pa-pers. We will express no opinion on the sub-ject at present, as it seems to be rather a perms. We will express no opinion on the sub-ject at present, as it seems to be rather a personal and congregational quarrel, growing out of some suspicions of disloyalty in relation to one of the functionaries connected with the church. Those who desire to know more shout it can procure a pamphlet at Mr. Davis' book store on Wood street. We understand that a reply will be issued in pamphlet form in ashort time. Those who have at it a band are very composion, and will in pamphlet form in a short time. Those who have it in hand are very competent, and will no doubt defend themselves successfully.

The Delegation to Washington on the Amendment of the Constitution. The Delegation appointed by the Conven tion, which has just closed its sessions in tion, which has just closed its sessions in Allagheny, to lay the results of its deliberations in regard to the amendment of the Constitution before the National Executive Congress in Washington City, held a meeting in the study of the Rev. Dr. Howard, yesterday afternoon, and agreed to meet in Willard's Hotel, on Tuesday evening, February 9th, at 7 o'clock. The names of the delegation are: Hotsl, on Tuesday evening, February 9th, at 7 o'clock. The names of the delegation are: Rev. J, H. McIlvaine, D. D., Rev. John T. Pressly, D. D., Rev. Attempted Suicide. Mrs. Barbara Miller, wife of a soldier, residing on Pike street, Allegheny, attempted to commit suicide on Tuesday night, by takto commit suicide on Tassday night, by taring arsenic. The dose was not in proper quantity, and on Wednesday morning she found herself very ill, and sent for Dr. Earhart. It was inferred from her carduct, that she had regretted taking the poison, as she was very willing to, receive the attentions of the physician. Proper remedies were applied, and the patient was yesterday regarded as out of danger. The only reason assigned for her conduct was that her husband had re-enlisted for, three years, and had shown by this that he did not care anything about her.

HUNT'S GARNTERE OF THE BORDER AND SOUTHERN STATES.—OUR COLETPRING TOWNSMAN, Mr. J. P. Hunt, Masonic Hail, Fifth Street, has published a "Garntere or the Border and Southern States," containing a full description of the railroad routes, turn-pike roads, cities, towns, villages, mountains, and valleys, rivers, springs, etc., and showing distances, populations, topographical situations, etc., designed to serve as a Hand Book and reliable Guide for soldiers and travelers. It is compiled by R. H. Long, late of the United map of the Border and Southern States. This little volume in a traveler's pocket or valies, or in asoldier's knapsek, during the approaching campaign in the Southern States, might prove itself' a very welcome and agreeable companion.
