Mr. Tetedoux has consented to organize such amateur singers with his classes as may at-tand the pupils and amateurs to meet at his house on Third street, between Smithfield and Grant streets, st 6 of clock, p. m. It is vory test. A brass band will also be in attendance. Let all our people turn out. The rebellion must be crunhed, and the "fighting Pennsyl-vanis General," Hancok be sustained. Let u sall, to a man, rally. A good word note is worth more than at any other time.

"Gos, THE HELF OF THE NATION."-This is "Gos, THE HELF OF THE NATION."-This is the till of a sermon, delivered in Trinity Church, in this city, on the day of National Thanksgiving, November 26, 1853, by George Upfold, DD., LL.D., Bishop of Indiana. The discourse was heard by the congregation with such satisfaction, that the publication of is was urgently requested. The Bishop yielded to the wishes of his former parish-ioners, and having committed his manuscript to W.S. Haren, that excellent printer has now ready this very handsome pamphlet edition, at his store, cerner of Wood and Third streets, where those desiring copies can be supplied.
