the cheering had subsided, the band played "Hail to the Chief." The audience now began to call for Brooks, and Goy. Johnson introduced the Genral. He said that he would not have been more surprised if he had seen it stated in the papers that he was expected to sing a song. He be-lieved that properly speaking this was a finan-cial meeting, a matter that he knew nothing about to be taken should be successful, and condinised by aying to the rich men, the cap-italists of Allegheny county, that the best monument they could rear to themselves, would be to use their moley by filling up the ranks decimated by war. Gon. Brooks speech was of a practical nature, and the suddence showed their soprecision of the manner in which he mailed his subject, by Joud shoers. As Gan. B. was retiring, the band struck up the "StarSpangied Banner," after which at the susing cheers were given for Gens. Haneson and Brooks, and a tiger at the rank face torn away.
