Accident on the Connellsville Railroad Last evening, as the mail train on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville railroad was ap hing the city, and when near the Coppe preaching the city, and when near one couper Works Station, a man was discovered on the track by the engineer, who immediately blew the alarm whistle. The man, to all appearthe slarm whistle. The man, to all appear-ances, stepped off the track, but not far enough to avoid the humper of the engine, which struck him on the head, cutting his right ear in two, and also a deep gash in the head. Every effort has been made to find out his name and place of residence, but thus far, no clus has been obtained. He is about sixty years of age, well dressed, and had on his person a pocket book containing ten dollar-and fifteen cents, but no papears by which he could be identified. It is thought he has a son at camp Copeland, and was returning
