STOFFICIAL PAPER. TH The Public Roads-Efforts to Improve their Condition.

On Monday afternoon, in response to a pub lie call, a number of citizens assembled in Splans's Building. Fifth street, for the purposse of adopting some measures to zecure the improvement of the public thoroughfares leading from this city, upon which toils are colthe Secretary, and Mr. J. Beostin as a statistical to be set as a delegate. Mr. Joseph Dilworth was appointed Chair-Mr. Joan T. ne was whing to sacruce it all ter good read. Mr, Mansfeld B. Brown favored the amend-ment. Threeyears ago, first mortgage bonds, amounting to $9,000, had been issued, for the repair of the Temperancovilly and Nobles-town Plankroad, and this amount, together with the entire receipts, except the necessary expenses for toll collectors, etc., had been ex-pended upon the road-still it was not in good condition. The read could not be kept in proper repair at the preset rate of toll. He was largely interested in this road, and he knew that its affairs had been judiciously manged, notwithstanding the allegations to the contrary. He expressed himself willing, howaver, to sacrifice his personal interest; largo as it was, if by doing so a good road could be guaranteed. A grutheman suggested that the increase of

It was agreed that two mombers of the com-mittee to correspond with mombers of the Legislature, should be authorized to call a meeting of the citizens at any time. W. A. Herron, Erq., expressed regrot at the want of interest manifested in the meet-ing, as indicated by the paucity in numbers. The matter was one of vital importance to perer citizen. He had been deeply mortified to base strangers express the opinion that "we had worre roads about Pitchburgh than any other place they had ever seen," etc. The roads were actually a digraco to the idinens, and if genitemen would only express thair minds freely on the subject, it would contribute much towards correcting the eril. He was sorry to see genitemen present who ware backward about speaking eut plainy jurt as they fait. Owners and carriage calls will be taken at the Omniss office, No. 410 Penn street, day or night.
