Coroner McClung yesterday held an inquest upon the body of Mrs. Mary Jane Murphy, wife of Charles Murphy, a member of the 102d regiment who was found dead the previous night, at her residence in a court off Pike street, near Walnut, in the Fifth Ward. She for some time, and being unable to climb into bed had been in the habit of sleeping in a bed spread upon the floor. She was quite ill when abe retired, and her mother, who lived with her, in waking up in the night, went to her bed and found her dead. She was about thirty-five years of age, and the mother of two children. The jury found a verdict of "death from matural causes."

RAILWAYS IN THE UNITED STATES.—It is interesting to note the growth of the railway in terest of the United States. From 1826 to 1839 there were for but three miles of railway in the country. On the first of January, 1834, there were 762 miles; in 1844 the number had increased to 4,311 miles; in 1854 to 15,672 miles; and on the first of January, 1834, the amount of completed railway had grown to 33,640 miles, with 16,000 more miles in progrees.

Therefore, Mire Western supears again this evening in the French Spy and the Pet of the Fedicoats. Of course the house will be full.
