

The New Campaign

The following thoughtful and encouraging article upon the prospects of the campaign in the Northwest which has just been published by Gen. Grant and his lieutenants...

There is no more encouraging feature of the present campaign than that it has opened up over the theatre of war, under the leadership of Gen. Grant...

The rebel leaders in the formation of their plans for the coming campaign, have been coming largely on their ability to repeat the operations of Grant...

Not to Gen. Grant, who has been quietly forming quite a number of his plans, and an entirely different role both for himself and the enemy...
