SITT AND SUBURBAN. STOFFICIAL PAPER. SA The Dake Habeas Corpus Case. On Thursday afternoon Judge Sterrett competent to get up an interesting and at-setumed the hearing of witnesses in the tractive entertainment, and on the present matter of the application of Mrs. D. M. Dake, matter of the apparential of habeas corpus to compel Mrs. efforts. We give below the correspondence nes and Dr. Cuthbert to produce the body the instance of counsel for the practice of the respondents) were examined at length in regard to the condition of the doctor, and the effects which would be likely to follow his removal from the house of Mrs. Helmes, wherehe now lags to a room in this city, or to one of the in-staid with Mrs. Holmes on another occasion when sick; that he has become extranged from his family and has a warm friendship for Mrs. Holmes. An offer was made to prove that the sheracter of Mrs. Holmes was such that the numbers of Dr. Dake's family could not visit him at her house and maintain their self-respect, but the Court rulled out the testimony as irrevelent.

The hearing occupied the entire afternoon, and will be resumed at nine o'clock this morning.

" God in History." We see it announced that the learned, amiable and accomplished Dr. D. B. Kerr, editor of the United Prebyterica, and Professor of Reclasiastical History and Church Government in the U. P. Seminary, Allegheny, will deliver e lecture on "God in History," in the Rev. Dr. Cooper's Church, Philadelphia; on the 22d . We can assure our Philadelphia friends that there is a rich treat in store for them. Dr. Kmr handles every subject well that he undertakes. On this subject he wil that he undertakes. In the support of Pita-be peculiarly at home.

THE FIRE OF WEDGEDAY NIGHT.—We understand that the loss sustained by Messre. John C. Love & Co., by the burning of their oil refinery in Pitt township, on Wednesday night, will amount to $100,000. The buildings and machinery were insuren for $25,000. The fire is said to have originated from a lighted candle which some one thoughtiersly carried into the building. Mr. J. P. Hubr, Masonio Hall, Fifth street, has received the March number of "Frunk Leilie's Lady" Masonia and Gastie of Fashion," which contains a large double-page fashion plate, colored, a great number of wood-ent illustrations, patterns, etc., etc. Also, Glesson's Literary Companion," for March 19th, and "Forney" War Press," for this week; both which are illustrated with wood-week; both which are illustrated with wood engryings.

Life of GENERAL BOTLER.—Mr. J. P. Hus: Masonic Hall, Pifth street, has received "Th Life and Public Services of Hajor-Genet: Butter, with Portrait." This "Life! of General Butter occupies 103 large deadecimpages, and is sold at the remarkably loppies of 25 cents. It is from the press of Theorems and Brothers, Philadelphia.

Accident.—A young man named Alaxander Lowrie had one of his fingers out off and his hand severely iscerated, on Tuesday, at the Great Wesjarn Planing Mill, Daquesme Way, by his hand coming in contact with a circular saw.

BROKE DOWE.—A small bridge connecti the rest of the Mayor's office with the wate house, broke down yesterday. The comm nication was re-established by the aid of as eral heavy planks, and travel between the tr places has been resumed.

THEAVR.—This craning has been set apart for the benefit of Mr. Neafle. An excellent bill is announced, and we have no doubt the house will be crowded. "Uncle Tom's Cabin" will be produced next week. GROVER & BARRE'S Sewing Machine a mation this morning, at McClelland's, 558
