oved to Ottawa City. Evacuation of Camp Nelson. LOUILVILLE, March 31.—The Lexington Discrete says, Camp Nelson, owing to the hange of the base for supplies, has less vacanted and the military stores removed to Sahville.

A rumor prevailed at Lexington en Tresday, that many buildings at Camp Nelson had been destroyed by fire, but this assertion is discredited.

Longstree's forces are at Watuga, more than 100 miles east of the chan 100 miles east of the protect the retreat. I am still of the opinion that the robels are intending furthwith to make a raid into Kentucky.

From Louisvilles From Louisville,

Louisville, March 31.—Military anthorities here have received information that saveral of the rebell, who crossed at Eddysville, have been captured, and a number gave themselves up under the annesty produmation, and the remainder scattered. No further approximations from Forest's force.

Two or three bunderd mounted rabels have appeared in Kennecky, this side of Cane (fap, supposed to be covering the advance of Longstreet's forces. Our troops are ready for them in whatever numbers they present themselver.
