Court of Quarter Sessions.

Before Judges Sterrett and Brown.

Mary Collins, a young girl aged fifteen years, was arraigned on a charge of attempting to poison the family of Rev. R. Beacom, of McKeesport, on the 15th of October last. The accused was employed as a domestic in the family, and had a slight difficulty with Mrs. Beacom on the night previous to the alleged attempted poisoning. The prisoner had prepared breakfast, and immediately after partaking of the coffee, the family were seized with symptoms of poisoning. In the coffee pot, after an examination, some thirteen grains of arsenic were discovered. For the defense it was alleged that the arsenic had found its way into the coffee pot by accident; that arsenic had been purchased by the family for the purpose of killing rats, part of which had been used for that purpose; that the rats in running through the cupboard had scattered the poison about, and thereby had found its way into the coffee pot.

Mrs. Mary Smith, who resides at Greenoak, near McKeesport, testified that she had known Mary Collins from a child, and that she had been living with witness for the past two weeks. Mrs. Foster, who resides in the neighborhood, was acquainted with defendant for nine years, and testified to her former good character.

The defense offered no further evidence. Mr. Moffit, the defendant's counsel, referred to the fact that the defendant was a poor girl, who earned her livelihood by the sweat of her brow, was fatherless, homeless, and almost friendless. If guilty, she would naturally have endeavored to conceal her crime, but there was no concealment in the case. Mrs. Beacom purchased the poison, and defendant saw it placed in the cupboard. She had also informed one of the children that she had swept some poison from the carpet in front of the cupboard; also, that she had been the only person in the kitchen before breakfast. It had been testified that she had refused to partake of breakfast that morning, which was in her favor. Had she deliberately perpetrated the crime, she would have "shammed" to eat her breakfast. The counsel said that the friends of the defendant had left her alone, and if he had believed her guilty he would not have raised his voice in her behalf

J. M. Kirkpatrick, District Attorney, stated that the defendant was undoubtedly conscious of the presence of the poison, cooked the breakfast alone, and there was poison in the coffee. Defendant had made contradictory statements. The question for the jury to decide was, who placed the poison in the coffee? The demeanor of the prisoner was not that of the guilty generally, her conduct in court indicating scarcely a realization of the fact that she was on trial. If guilty, she had been without any moral control whatever.

The Court delivered a very impartial charge, and enjoined upon the jury that the evidence was entirely circumstantial, and that the rule in such cases was that the circumstances should point clearly to the guilt of the defendant, and be inconsistent with any other hypothesis.

The jury found the defendant guilty, with an earnest recommendation to the mercy of the Court, believing that the crime was the result of youth and thoughtlessness. The defendant was remanded for sentence.

Jane McDermott was indicted for selling liquor without license at No. 9 Point street, on oath of Martin Adley. Verdict not guilty, each party to pay one-half the costs.

Michael Glennan and John Morrison were indicted for forcible entry and detainer, on oath of Alex. Gallagher. Jury out.

Movement of Troops—Burnside's Corps Going East.

This morning about one o'clock, fifteen hundred men, belonging to General Burnside's Corps, arrived in this city, from the West, and after being provided with a bountiful meal by the Pittsburg Subsistence Committee, at City Hall, they were transferred without delay to the Pennsylvania Railroad depot, where a special train was in waiting to convey them to Baltimore, from which point they will go to Annapolis. This is the first detachment of the 9th Army Corps, which is now being transferred from East Tennessee to Annapolis, to take part in some expedition or campaign not yet made known to the public. These will be followed by other large bodies, until the whole are transferred. It is expected that about 18,000 will pass through this city eastwardly during the next ten days or two weeks.

The troops which arrived this morning compose the 1st Brigade, 1st Division of the 9th corps. The regiments are the celebrated 79th New York (Highlanders) formerly commanded by Col. Cameron, who was killed at the first Bull Run battle, but now under charge of Major Simpson, the 36th Massachusetts, Major Draper, and the 20th Michigan, Capt. Barnes. The brigade was expected to arrive in the city at nine o'clock, but was delayed until one. The supper provided by the Subsistence Committee was excellent, and was highly relished by the tired and hungry soldiers.

The 109th Regiment.

The 109th Regiment of re-enlisted veterans are now in the city, on their way to the army of the Cumberland. A stand of colors for the Regiment arrived yesterday from their friends in Philadelphia, and will be presented this morning, at eleven o'clock, in front of the Monongahela House. One company in this regiment was formed in this city—another in New Castle—the rest in Philadelphia.

Rev. J. McMillan, of Allegheny, was their Chaplain during the first year of their service, and will present their flags to-day.

Accident on the Pennsylvania Railroad—A Man Killed.

On Monday afternoon, about three o'clock, a brakesman on an Eastward bound train, named James Trunzil, was thrown from his car, near Britton station, and instantly killed. The deceased was about nineteen years of age, and had been engaged on the road but a short time. We were unable to learn the particulars of the accident. The body was placed on the train and conveyed to Adamsburg, Westmoreland county, where the parents of the deceased reside.

HEADQUARTERS DEPARTMENT OF THE MONONGAHELA, PITTSBURGH, PA., April 4th, 1864.

General Orders No. 21:—Enlisted men on furlough in this city, by reason of re-enlistment or other causes, guilty of disorderly conduct and breaches of the peace, will be arrested and returned to the armies to which they belong in the field, without regard to their being furloughed. When arrested by the police force of the city, the Provost Marshal at the Girard House will take the offending parties in custody, for the purpose indicated above, on information from the Mayor.

By Command of

MAJOR GENERAL BROOKS.

THEODORE REED, Asst. Adj't. Gen'l.

SNAGS UP.—On Friday night last, about 11 o'clock, two freight trains on the Pennsylvania railroad collided near Lilly's station, Cambria county. A smash up of considerable magnitude was the result. We understand that no less that three engines and twelve cars were totally wrecked and ruined. No lives were lost, nor no personal injury was done the persons having the trains in charge, we believe.

COMPLAINT AGAINST A NIGHT WATCHMAN.—John H. Barber, Captain of the night watch under Mayor Sawyer's administration, preferred a charge yesterday against Watchman Thomas Graham, of beat No. 8, for unofficerlike conduct. The Mayor had an investigation of the case last evening, which resulted in the complete exoneration of the officer.

THEATRE.—Mr. Edwin Adams, the young and talented tragedian, made his first appearance before a Pittsburgh audience last evening, in the Shakspeare master-piece, Hamlet. His rendition of the character was excellent, and elicited frequent applause from the audience. Miss Lillie Marden, who appeared as Ophelia, gave great satisfaction. Macbeth is announced for this evening.

Our Book Table.

THE VEIL PARTLY LIFTED, and Jesus Becoming Visible. W. R. Furness, Author of "Remarks on the Four Gospels," "Jesus and his Biographers," "A History of Jesus," and "Thoughts on the Life and Character of Jesus of Nazareth." Boston: Ticknor & Fields. Pittsburgh: for sale by Henry Miner, 71 and 73 Fifth street. 50 pp. 12mo.

Written in a pleasing and graceful style, and with due preparation of study and exercise of the heart's affections also, as regards the important subject treated of, this volume can hardly fail to interest and benefit its reader—though probably its being written from the Unitarian standpoint will diminish somewhat its general acceptability. But notwithstanding the omnidedness necessarily involved by this position of the writer, his book may be profitably looked into even by the most inexorably orthodox of readers. He disposes very effectually of several of the recently published views of M. Revan, whose semi-infidel "Life of Jesus" is now being read extensively both in Europe and America. As the imprimatur of Ticknor & Fields on its title page, it is almost needless to say that it is beautifully printed.

RED-TAPE AND PIGEON-HOLE GENERALS: As seen from the Ranks during a Campaign in the Army of the Potomac. By a Citizen Soldier. New York; Carleton. Pittsburgh: for sale by Henry Miner, 71 & 73 Fifth street. 316pp. 12mo.

This is a lively and pleasant book, full of good, hard hits—in a word, full of such good things as the writer himself was full, and which he has therefore written down not only con amore, making ref ire the pleasure it gave him to do so, but also with an air of responsibility, as if he was conscious that his own eyes and ears were reliable witnesses. There is considerable freshness and vigor throughout—and such pungency withal, as can hardly fail to amuse the reader—that is, if he has no bowels of compassion to be moved by the aforesaid hard hits, that are so freely dealt at certain luckless wights whose fault or misfortune it is to wear unenviable shoulder-straps.

THE FAMILY TREASURER.—We are happy to welcome this new monthly to our table. It is conducted by Rev. David M'Kinney, D.D., and I. N. M'Kinney, and is devoted to Christian Doctrine, Science, History, Biography and Evangelical Literature. The April number, which has just appeared, has the following very promising table of contents: Parental Responsibility; Science and Common Sense; Forest Meditations; The Mother's Anguish; The Bank Notes; Christ—in Early Unimpired History; The Lawyer and Revivals; Home: Little Alice; Our Summer Visitor: Atonement; On Receiving Some Pressed Flowers; The Day of Days; Food, Health and Longevity; Faults of Character; Fancy a Handmaid to Truth; Wandering Thoughts in Prayer; Bible Pictures—Mara; Major General Mitchell; Miracles; Selected Miscellany; Child's Department; Editorial Miscellany; Secular Interests.

The editors of "The Family Treasurer" are so well known in this community, that it must be quite unnecessary for us to speak of their literary experience, their piety and learning, and their well-tried ability as writers. With such indisputable advantages as they possess, undoubtedly our Presbyterian friends will receive at their hands a sound and judiciously conducted family magazine.

OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1864.

IMMIGRATION.

Secretary Seward has written a letter to the Chairman of the House Select Committee on Immigration, recommending the passage of some bill to encourage immigration to this country. He says that at the present moment we have very active and increasing immigration, and our commercial representatives abroad say the consulates are thronged with persons desirous to emigrate, but destitute of means to incur the expense of a voyage. He estimates the cost of bringing over one hundred thousand emigrants at a million and a half dollars. He sends a draft of a bill to the Committee covering the points he recommends, which are, in brief, a commissioner, with a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars, and clerks; provides for advancing money to immigrants pledging their labor for repayment, and the claim can be enforced in courts; authorises a reduction of the tonnage duties on emigrant vessels, reduces the term of naturalization to one year, and abolishes the law requiring a declaration of intention in their cases, and also specially provides that these immigrants shall not be subject to do military duty.

ARRIVAL OF REBEL PRISONERS.

Seventy-five rebel prisoners arrived at Point Lookout on Thursday. They were captured in Gloucester, Va. They represent the times very hard in the South, and the Southern people very sick of the war. They say, however, that tremendous exertions are being made to hurry on troops to Gen. Lee, believing that Gen. Grant would soon move toward Richmond. Among them are six men that were only exchanged some six weeks ago, and who left the Point with the first lot sent to City Point for exchange. Their stay at home was extraordinarily short.

THE BLAIR INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

Mr. Howard, of the port of St. Louis, appeared before the Blair Investigating Committee this forenoon. Members of the Committee have expressed the opinion that thus far the testimony has been mainly in Blair's favor. One of them says that it has led them to suspect that Blair gave orders for small amounts of whiskey, and steamboat captains changed it to much larger amounts for purpose of speculation. Blair's witnesses swear very positively in his favor. McClurg's evidence is not all in yet.

ENLISTMENT OF REBELS IN THE U. S. ARMY.

Eight hundred rebels at Point Lookout have enlisted in the U.S. army. They will soon be organized into a regiment. Most of them are East Tennesseans, who were compelled to take up arms against the Government, and all can be trusted.

COLORED TROOPS.

Two full regiments of colored troops have been recruited at Baltimore, within the past month, and are now ready for active service. Regiments and companies of colored troops are constantly arriving there, from all parts of the country.

SOLDIERS AT ANNAPOLIS, MD.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

HARRISBURG, April 4, 1864.

BILLS PASSED FINALLY.

HOUSE—Afternoon—A supplement to the Pennsylvania Land and Marble Company, presented by Mr. Myers, on his motion was considered and passed, giving it the same privileges in Somerset as the company now has in Montgomery county. Mr. Glass presented a supplement to the general Militia law, declaring that school directors of wards had the same power to levy taxes as the school directors of townships. The Freeport and Shenango Valley Railroad and Coal Company, with the right to connect with any Railroad or canal in Mercer county, requires only the Governor's signature to become a law. Also, supplement to the Beaver Valley Railroad.

BILLS IN PLACE.

By Mr. Henry, a supplement relative to the protection of fruit; one by Mr. Searight, for the relief of creditors of the National turnpike; one to increase the pay of constables and county auditors in Fayette county; one permitting the school directors of Union borough to borrow money and sell real estate; one to authorise the school directors of Washington township, Fayette county, to levy a tax for county purposes. A resolution denouncing a Massachusetts Colonel for the alleged arrest of a citizen of Philadelphia, and carrying him out of Pennsylvania, was lost: yeas 26, nays 83.

BILLS IN PLACE.

SENATE—By Mr. McCandless, bills relative to Houses of Refuge, Lunatic Hospitals and Penitentiaries.

SENATE—Evening Session—By Mr. Graham, pay.

Capt. Brady, an old soldier of Perry's victory, librarian of the Senate, died this morning, aged sixty-nine. Panegyrics upon the deceased were delivered by Messrs. Lamberton, Johnson and Champneys. Resolutions of condolence were passed.

Serious difficulties are prevailing among the Republicans in the House, relative to the apportionment of the State, upon Senatorial districts.

Both Houses adjourned until to morrow morning.

St. Louis and Leavenworth Elections

St. Louis, April 4.—Incomplete returns indicate the election of Jas. S. Thomas, radical candidate for Mayor, by from 2000 to 2500 majority. The new Council will have from four to six radical majority.

At the election in Leavenworth Joseph S. McDowell with his entire ticket was elected by from six to eight hundred majority. At noon Mayor Anthony issued a proclamation closing the polls, and calling on the citizens to assist him in preserving the peace, which was disregarded and voting continued. Rioting was indulged in to a considerable extent. Several persons, including Mayor Anthony, were beaten with revolvers and driven from the polls.

The Democrat's Leavenworth special says that at the election to-day the polls were raided by a mob in the interest of McDowell, the Caney and Copperhead candidate, and Mayor Anthony and many of his friends were knocked down and brutally beaten. The city Marshal was assaulted and dangerously wounded. Armed men took possession of the polls early in the morning and dared the city authorities. The military were called on by the Mayor to preserve order, but assistance was refused. Gen. Davis, district commander, issued stringent orders that the soldiers at the Fort should not visit the city unless entitled to vote, but the order was openly violated. Gen. Curtis is absent. Intense excitement exists, and the best citizens denounce the election as a farce and fraud. The Copperheads are jubilant. Other dispatches say that Mayor Anthony tried to excite a mob by closing the First ward polls, but the people compelled him to open them again.

Connecticut Elections.

HARTFORD, CONNECTICUT, April 4.—The indications at this time, six P. M., are that Buckingham has been elected by 10,000 majority. The gains are very large over last year.

NEW HAVEN, April 4.—The following eight towns in this county give Union majorities: Derby, East Haven, Guilford, Meridian, North Bradford, North Haven, Orange, and Woodbridge. The following give Democratic majorities: Branford, Cheshire, Naugatuck, Oxford, Seymour, Wallingford, Waterbury. All the former give increased and the latter reduced majorities. New Haven elects two Union Representatives, and a Union Senator from the Fourth District is elected.

NEW HAVEN, April 4.—10 P. M.—The returns from this county are complete except the town of Smithburg. Buckingham has 102 majority, a gain of 950 over the vote of last year.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 4, 1864.

HOUSE.—The House considered Mr. Etheridge's resolution, calling on the Secretary of War, if not incompatible with the public interest, to furnish to the House information as to the amount of money received up to this time as commutation for drafted men, and what disposition has been made of the money; if substitutes have been purchased for the drafted men, how many, and where procured; what sums have been paid for them; whether they were white or black, and how much for each.

Mr. Stevens moved to lay the resolution on the table. Carried.

On motion of Mr. Arnold, of Illinois, the Secretary of War was called upon, if not incompatible with the public interest, to furnish a statement of the number of men called into the military service since March, 1861, the quotas of each State under each call.

The House proceeded to the consideration of the resolution of Mr. Brown, directing the Secretary of War to communicate the number of negro regiments already enlisted, when organized, and the number of privates; amount paid for bounties, pay and equipments, and other expenses of organization; in what battles the negro troops have been engaged, and how many were killed and wounded; discriminating between the different battles.

Mr. Stevens said he was opposed to furnishing a roll for the enemy, and therefore moved to lay the resolution on the table, which was agreed to.

The House then resolved itself into a Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union, Mr. Rollins, of New Hampshire, in the chair, and resumed the consideration of the National Bank Bill.

Mr. Elijah Ward, of New York, offered an amendment, the object of which was that State Banks, when their organization under the act is completed, shall withdraw their State bank circulation. The amendment was rejected.

Mr. Blair, of Maine, offered a new section that 7 per cent as fixed under the 30th section of this bill, shall be the lawful rate of interest in States where no rate is established, but each bank shall be governed by the State law where it is located. He made a few explanatory remarks when the amendment was adopted by 69 to 21.

Mr. Van Valkenburg offered an amendment that nothing in this act shall prevent the State from taxing the capital stock of said banks the same as for Corporative, State or Municipal purposes.

Mr. Davis, of Maryland, offered to further amend by exempting money invested in U. S. Bonds from taxation.

The question of the propriety and justice of State or municipal taxation was considered and discussed at length.

Without concluding the subject the Committee rose.

At half past four the House adjourned.

SENATE—After a debate, Mr. Johnson moved to postpone all prior orders and proceed to the Naval Appropriation bill. The yeas and nays were demanded, but as there was no quorum present the Senate adjourned.
