

ESTABLISHED IN 1786. Pittsburgh-Gazette.

TERMS OF THE GAZETTE. Single copies, per year, $3.00. Six months, $1.50. Three months, $1.00. Single copies, per year, $3.00.

"RECONSTRUCTION" SPEECH OF HON. THOMAS WILLIAMS, OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Delivered in the House of Representatives on Saturday, April 23d, 1864.

Table showing the number of copies of the Gazette published during the week ending May 11, 1864.

As was fully detailed in the late battle in Virginia, each and every one of these thrilling details will be found in our dispatches.

General Sherman's march to the sea, and the capture of Savannah, Georgia, on September 21st, 1864.

General Sherman's march to the sea, and the capture of Savannah, Georgia, on September 21st, 1864.

General Sherman's march to the sea, and the capture of Savannah, Georgia, on September 21st, 1864.

General Sherman's march to the sea, and the capture of Savannah, Georgia, on September 21st, 1864.

General Sherman's march to the sea, and the capture of Savannah, Georgia, on September 21st, 1864.

General Sherman's march to the sea, and the capture of Savannah, Georgia, on September 21st, 1864.

ing a punishment less than that of death to the highest of crimes, they would not, perhaps, have considered the rights of man as quite so complete as they seemed to think it. If we are to punish those who flee from justice into other lands, we shall have to draw from the lumber rooms of the profession the most obnoxious of the age.

It is in this reading of the disputed clause of the Constitution, and even under the opposite hypothesis—supposing it to be the unconstitutional one, and not the other—there is no ground for the construction of the great national possessions of the United States, in any feasible plan of reconstruction.

It is in this reading of the disputed clause of the Constitution, and even under the opposite hypothesis—supposing it to be the unconstitutional one, and not the other—there is no ground for the construction of the great national possessions of the United States, in any feasible plan of reconstruction.

It is in this reading of the disputed clause of the Constitution, and even under the opposite hypothesis—supposing it to be the unconstitutional one, and not the other—there is no ground for the construction of the great national possessions of the United States, in any feasible plan of reconstruction.

It is in this reading of the disputed clause of the Constitution, and even under the opposite hypothesis—supposing it to be the unconstitutional one, and not the other—there is no ground for the construction of the great national possessions of the United States, in any feasible plan of reconstruction.

It is in this reading of the disputed clause of the Constitution, and even under the opposite hypothesis—supposing it to be the unconstitutional one, and not the other—there is no ground for the construction of the great national possessions of the United States, in any feasible plan of reconstruction.

It is in this reading of the disputed clause of the Constitution, and even under the opposite hypothesis—supposing it to be the unconstitutional one, and not the other—there is no ground for the construction of the great national possessions of the United States, in any feasible plan of reconstruction.

It is in this reading of the disputed clause of the Constitution, and even under the opposite hypothesis—supposing it to be the unconstitutional one, and not the other—there is no ground for the construction of the great national possessions of the United States, in any feasible plan of reconstruction.

THE BATTLE OF FRIDAY AND SATURDAY. FURTHER DETAILS.

Determined and Desperate Fighting. OVERWHELMING CHARGE OF LONGSTREET. AN Awful Crisis.

THE BATTLE TURNS IN OUR FAVOR. LAST NUMBERS OF WOUNDED AND DYING. The Strategy of Grant and Lee. LEE COMPLETELY OVERTHROWN.

New York, May 10, 1864. The Herald has the following relative to the battle of Friday and Saturday. At five o'clock Friday morning, the contest was renewed on the extreme line, and the roar and hum of battle came from every quarter.

From the Southwest. DISPATCH FROM GEN. SHERMAN. GREAT BATTLE PROBABLY IN PROGRESS.

WASHINGTON, May 10—General Sherman, in a dispatch to General Sherman, stated that he was fighting for the possession of Rocky Ford, and that the Rebels were being driven back.

Account of Friday's Fight—Continued. The Rebels were driven back to the extreme line, and the contest was renewed.

THE BATTLE OF FRIDAY AND SATURDAY. FURTHER DETAILS. DETERMINED AND DESPERATE FIGHTING.

THE BATTLE OF FRIDAY AND SATURDAY. FURTHER DETAILS. DETERMINED AND DESPERATE FIGHTING.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Important Decision by Judge Agnew. On Saturday last Judge Agnew, of the Supreme Court, delivered an opinion in the case of Baltimore & Annapolis.

On Saturday the Conference, presided at by Judge Agnew, was held in the City Hall. The subject was the proposed amendment to the Constitution.

The circulation of the periodicals was reported to be greater than for any year since 1850. The total number of copies of the Gazette published during the week ending May 11, 1864, was 15,000.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trade was held on Monday evening last. The subject was the proposed amendment to the Constitution.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trade was held on Monday evening last. The subject was the proposed amendment to the Constitution.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trade was held on Monday evening last. The subject was the proposed amendment to the Constitution.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trade was held on Monday evening last. The subject was the proposed amendment to the Constitution.

The regular meeting of the Board of Trade was held on Monday evening last. The subject was the proposed amendment to the Constitution.