Thomas M. Marshall and M. Swartswelder, Eggi, appear for the defendant, and District Attorney Kirkpatrick and Billings G. Childs, Equ., for the Commonwealth.
After the jury had been sworn, Mr. Childs opened the case briefly on behalf of the protectuitin, when the Court took a recess until two o'clock.

Monday Afternoon, May 16.—Court reassombled at two o'clock, and the examination of witnesses was commenced.
Dr. Wm. Hamilton testified that he was a practicing physician in Allegheny; on the evening of the 7th of March was called upon to see deceased at Milliken's drug-store, who had been cut; he was sitting in a chair at the back pair of the store; had a wound near the center of the chest, in the left side; the wound, in his opinion, caused deast; deceased died in fifteen minutes after receiving the wound; in his opinion, caused deast; deceased died in fifteen minutes after receiving the wound; in fifteen minutes after receiving the wound; the committee were well as point of honor to go when called. Made a post mortem examination at the residence of deceased's mother. The knife found on Sims was shown to the witness, and he stated that the wound could have been made by that knife.

Wim. G. Stubbs testified to having seen the difficulty on Federal street, on the evening of the murder. He described the disturbance previous to the cutting, during which Sims was knocked down and beaten by two men. He afterwirds saw an open knife in the hands of a young man who was pointed out to him as Sime. He will, and then repeated them—adding many as "God bless you" as they passed out of the last street.

Charles Manning was called, and testified that he witnessed the difficulty which resulted is the death of Howard Hamilton. The witness was starding pear deceased when he was cut, and gave an account of the trans-

At this stage of the proceedings, the Court adjourned till nine o'clock on Tuesday morn-Arrival of Wounded Soldiers. Pifty-three soldiers, nearly all officers, who were wounded in the battle of the Wilderness, during the first two days' fighting, arrived in city yesterday at noon, and wore very y cared for at the Soldiers' Home. They sinally cared for at the Soldiers' Home. They all belonged to the Fifth corps, and were revealed in the west. They were furlaughed on Sunday last. Most lot them had to be carried from the cars to the Home, and many of the wounds had not been dressed since the battle. Dr. Fleming, surgeon to the Substitute of Committee, dressed their wounds, and furnished them with sponges andother articles necessary to enable them to complete their journey comfortably.
