The Sanitary Salicanter of the Fair presents was as large as any previous occasion since the opening. Thereduction of the price of admission has had the effect of securing the presence of many who would otherwise have been debarred the privilege. As the Fair will deseron Saturday, those who have not risted it should take advantage of the present opportunity.

The Dining Hall was unusually well pattended to give the most many the day, and the ladies in attendance had an excellent bill of fare to offer to whitour. The large Dining Hall has been closed, but we understand that the Restaurant will continue open to-day.

A large number of secret ballots were polled for the Firemen's Price Trampet during the day. It has avening it was removed to the Mayor's dimen, where it will remain until this alternoon at three o'clock, when the voids will be counted, and the price awarded to the successful party.

Mr. Mallory replied to the argument that slavery was incompatible with the expense, by citing Kentucky and Missouri as evidence that slavery was not incompatible with fidelity and loyalty to the Union. The party in power had changed the war for the restoration and preservation of the Union to a war for the destruction of slavery, as they boldly severed, as the only means of preserving the Union. President Lincoln had said to him and others of the Kentricky delegations to the last Congress that the means which were being taken to bring hack the seeded States were hard upon the bellef in that there were a large number of the people of these States in favor of the Union; but if it was re-established, that these people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were unminions in favor of substances of the people were the people w
