COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

[Reported Specially for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]
FRIDAY, June 24, 1864.

WHEAT—The offerings continue very light, and with a good demand, the market rules firm and prices are fully sustained. We continue to quote at $1,70 for Red from first hands, and $1,80 for White.

OATS—In slight supply and held firmly, but the demand is light and we have not a single sale to report. The nominal quotations are $1,25@1,35 for Red, and $1,35@1,40 for Shelled, according to quality.

OATS—Nothing doing of any importance, and the market is nominally unchanged. We note some few small sales from store at prices $5 67.

RYE—Sales effected at $1,05.

CORN—Is excited and held at an advance; but prices are so irregular that it is quite impossible to give quotations. For instance, select Southern lots have been sold as high as 1.5@ and 16, while other dealers were asking 145@. Plain Mixed are held at from 135@ to 140 according to weight, and Sound Yellow at $1 to $1 02.

FLOUR—Is very firm but the demand continues light and the transactions in the aggregate are limited. We note small sales from store at $8 25 to $8 75 for Extra Family, and for the brands of White are held by some at $9 00. A sale of 400 bbls, to the trade was reported at $8 25.

MESS PORK—Is firm and higher but there is a wide range in prices. We quote nominally at from $ @ $ per bbl.

LARD—Is steady with a regular jobbing demand and prices are readered easy to-day at from 16@ to 17 cts—sales of 60 lbs bond and put card at 15 cts.

BACON—Is quiet and dull but prices are without quotable change. We note sales of 4 loads at from $ @ $ per lb.

BUTTER—Is dull and nominal and higher; sales of 18 bbls at $ @ $ per lb.

CHEESE—Is firm and very unsettled; a sale of 65 bbls was reported at $1 65 per gallon for the trade.

Pittsburgh Petroleum Market.

JUNE 24.—The market for Crude continues dull and neglected, and those holders in order to effect sales are willing to make a slight concession. Notwithstanding these are several small lots offering, we were unable to hear of a single sale, and we give the nominal quotations at 32@40 bbls returned, and 45@50 bbls uncut. Top Refined continues fairly light and the supply is limited—Refined is steady with a fair demand for present, as well as future delivery, and we now quote it in comparatively quiet, prices are firm but unchanged. The sales-book was blank to-day, at 70c, delivered in Philadelphia, and 500 bbls, free, at 50 cents, August delivery, buyer's option. Naptha is in better demand and a shade firmer, but unchanged. New York Money and Stock Market.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette:

NEW YORK, June 24.—Stocks a shade firmer; Pittsburgh & Fort Wayne, 114; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 119; Gold has again advanced, closing this afternoon at 47. U. S. Sixes, 1-81, 105¾@112¾; seven Thirty Notes, 105¾. Five Twenties, 103½. One Year Certificates, 95¾.

Dividends of Petroleum Companies.

The petroleum oil business has assumed a magnitude almost too edible, and the amount of capital now represented by the various companies in the Oil Creek region of Pennsylvania is immense. Petroleum, during the past few years, has formed quite an important feature in our exports, and has aided in no small degree to pay our indebtedness abroad. The many uses to which it has been adapted has increased the consumption wond rfully, and is perfectly astonishing to those parties who first embarked in the business. American ingenuity and years of experience have assisted in developing the wells to an extent almost beyond the expectations of the most sanguine. The quantity produced has been likewise of late by new and more economical machinery. The "petroleum mania" recently seized upon the people, especially of Philadelphia, and a large number of stock companies were formed to work the various wells.

Many many of these companies are under the management of honest and experienced business men, and all such are now carving out to be a good investment. It may not be uninteresting to cite a few of the most successful ones. The Columbia Company, of Pittsburgh, Pa, have just declared their usual monthly dividend of fifty per cent on their capital stock. This company is splendidly managed, and seems to be based on a firm and substantial basis. The Noble and Delamater Petroleum Oil Company, have also declared a dividend of twenty-four dollars per share, being one per cent for six months ending June 1, 1864.

The Noble Well Oil Company paid, on June 10, at the office of the company, a dividend of one per cent on the capital stock for the month of May.

The following Philadelphia companies have just declared dividends:

The Noble and Delamater Petroleum Oil Company, a ten per cent monthly dividend from their earnings.

The McElhenny Oil Company, a dividend of one and a half per cent upon their capital stock, payable at or after the 1st inst.

The United Oil Company, a dividend of one per cent.

The Duquesne Oil Company, a dividend of two per cent.

The Olmstead Oil Company announces a dividend of four per cent out of the earnings of the month of May; also an extra dividend of four per cent both payable, free of tax, on the 15th inst.—Oil Trade Journal and Petroleum Record.

Baltimore Market—Coal Report.

JUNE 24, 6 P.M.—We notice the arrival to-day of the Swedish brig Thor from Rio, with 2500 bags Market still dull and nominal at 40@43 cts per lb for Rio, as to quality.

Flour—Is quiet, though holders very firm on account of the further advance in Gold. Some of the dealers declineoffering their stock. We notice sales of Howard Street extra at $8,87½.

Wheat—Is limited to a retail scale at $2@2 05 for prime to choice Red, and $2 10@2 15 for White. Nothing doing in other descriptions.

Corn—Is quiet. Sales City Mills, shipping Mixed, at $ @ $1,10 per bus.

Groceries—Were quiet on whites and 2000 bbls Refined sold at 20½@21½ for Extra Shaved, 21½@22 for Extra C, and 22½@23 for Powdered, all from 6 to 12 months. Yellows were held at 19½@20 for Extra C, and 20½@21 for Powdered, all from 6 to 12 months. Molasses—Was in fair demand and prices firm. Sales of 100 bbls Cuba at 70c, delivered in Philadelphia, and 500 bbls, free, at 50 cents, August delivery, buyer's option. Sugar—Is in better demand and a shade firmer, but unchanged. Molasses is firm with sales to a fair extent at $6,00 per bbl, on the spot.

The receipts by the Allegheny river since our last report comprise only 435 bbls as follows: 250 bbls for D. M. Edgerton and 185 for Wilson and Kaufman.

LAWS OF THE UNITED STATES.

Passed at the First Session of the Thirty-eighth Congress.

[PUBLIC—No. 98.]

AN ACT to change and define the boundaries of the eastern and western and judicial districts of Virginia and to alter the names of said districts, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the jurisdiction of the western district of Virginia shall hereafter be co-extensive with and confined to the limits of the State of West Virginia, and shall be called the district of West Virginia; and the jurisdiction of the eastern district of Virginia shall hereafter be co-extensive with the limits and include the whole of the State of Virginia, and shall be called the district of Virginia. The judge of the said district of West Virginia shall annually hold six sessions as follows: At Clarksburgh, on the twenty-fourth days of March and August; at Wheeling, on the sixth days of April and September; and at Charleston, on the nineteenth days of April and September. The judge of the district of Virginia shall, in addition to the sessions heretofore held by him as judge of the eastern district of Virginia, hold sessions at the times and places within the district of Virginia when and where sessions were held prior to the passage of this act by the judge of the western district of Virginia.

SEC. 2 And be it further enacted, That all the records and files of the courts of the eastern district of Virginia, hitherto held within the limits of the district of Virginia, as prescribed and fixed in the first section of this act, shall remain and be kept in the district of West Virginia; and all records and files of the courts of the western district of Virginia, hitherto held within the limits of the district of West Virginia, as prescribed and fixed by the first section of this act, shall remain and be kept in the district of West Virginia. And all writs, suits, pleas, recognizances, indictments, and all other proceedings, civil or criminal, issued, sued out, commenced or pending, of which if this act had never been passed, the judge of the western district would have had jurisdiction within the limits of the said district of Virginia, as defined by this act, shall be returned, entered, and have the day before, be heard and determined by, the judge of the district of Virginia, in the same manner, and with the same validity and effect, as they should have been returned, entered, heard, and determined by the judge of the western district of Virginia, if this act had never been passed.

SEC. 3 And be it further enacted, That all the judicial proceedings of the court of the western district of Virginia had within the limits of the district of West Virginia, as fixed by the first section of this act, since the erection of West Virginia into a State, are hereby made and declared to be as valid and binding as if this act had been passed contemporaneously with the act establishing the State of West Virginia, and said judicial proceedings had been unknown and by virtue of this act.

Approved June 11, 1864.

[PUBLIC—No. 99.]

AN ACT to provide for the summary trial of minor offences against the laws of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be lawful for the judge of any district court of the United States to hold a special session of said court at any time, whether in term or vacation, for the trial of minor offences against the laws of the United States, as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 2 And be it further enacted, That whenever a complaint shall be made against any master, officer or mariner of any ship or vessel belonging, in whole or in part, to any citizen or citizens of the United States, or of the commission of any offence, not capital or otherwise infamous, against any law of the United States made for the protection of persons or property engaged in commerce or navigation, it shall be the duty of the district attorney to investigate the same, and the general nature thereof, and if, in his opinion, the case is such as should be summarily tried under the provisions of this act, he shall report the same to the district judge, and the judge shall forthwith, or as soon as the ordinary business of the court will permit, proceed to try the cause, and for that purpose may, if necessary, hold a special session of the court.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That at such trial it shall not be necessary that the accused shall have been previously indicted, but a statement of complaint verified by oath, in writing, shall be presented to the court, setting out the offence in such manner as clearly to apprise the accused of the character of the offence complained of, and to enable him to answer the complaint. And the said complaint or statement shall be read to the accused, who may plead to or answer the same, or make a motion to quash the same.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That the said trial shall thereupon be proceeded with in a summary manner, and the case shall be decided by the court, unless, at the time for pleading or answering, the accused shall demand a jury, in which case the trial shall be upon the complaint and plea of not guilty.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the court to sentence any person convicted on such trial to any greater punishment than imprisonment for one year, or to a fine exceeding five hundred dollars, or both, in its discretion, in those cases where the laws of the United States authorize such imprisonment and fine.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the court to allow the district attorney to amend his statement or complaint at any stage of the proceedings, before verdict, if in the opinion of the court, such amendment will work no injustice to the accused; and if it appear to the court that the accused is unprepared to meet the charge as amended, and that an adjournment of the cause will promote the ends of justice, such adjournment shall be made until a further day, to be fixed by the court.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That at such trial, if by jury, the United States and the accused shall each be entitled to three peremptory challenges. Challenges for cause, in such cases, shall be tried by the court without the aid of triers.

Approved June 11, 1864.
