CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Mass Meeting in Allegheny City.
Last evening an adjourned meeting of the citizens of Allegheny City, held in audience hall in the Harmonic rooms, Park, Jr. Bldg., the President, called the meeting to order, and introduced Hon. Thos. Whiting.

Mr. Whiting stated that it was easier to make a speech than to give good advice. He had not to discuss matters which related to the nation's life. No State was more oppressed, and none more able, and he hoped more willing to defend itself and the speaker than Pennsylvania. The Governor of Ohio had, with just pride, boasted that his State had put 42,000 men into the field, and had 15,000 men in garrison at home to suppress rebel sympathies. Of all the troops sent by that State only two regiments were in the front, the balance being in the fort and trenches around Washington, and it was probable that the same disposition would be made of the men sent from this State.

The late act of Congress, which places in the hands of the President power to make draft without limitation, acknowledges the fact that the full force of the Government cannot be raised by the usual process of raising volunteers, and at the same time they believe that a large rebel army was before Richmond. The speaker, Gen. Whiting, said that he believed that a large rebel army was before Richmond, and that the Government is backed by volunteers, the rebel army will be quickly annihilated by the Government army.

Mr. Whiting stated that he had been asked by making an eloquent appeal to the people of Allegheny City to send 500 men to the front. He stated that that kind of war speeches which said "Send 500 men to the front" was the worst kind of war speeches that could be made. He stated that the Government is backed by volunteers, and that the rebel army will be quickly annihilated by the Government army.
