New York, August 3.— By the steamer Yano we learn that all the troops in New Oricans were suddenly sentup the river on the 26th. It is reported that the rebels were advancing on Morgarsi, though it is not known that these troops have gone to that place.

One thousand releast primorers had arrived at New Oricans.

The Commercial's Washington dispatch says:
It is understood that an earnest appeal will be made to the President by leading Rapublicans to give Gen. McClellan a command. It is urged that enlistments to the number of one hundred thousand would be secured in New York.

The impression gains ground that Hooker will have a most important command.

It is becoming apparent to the War Department that the rebels are resolved on a vigorous eampsign on the upper Potomac and are reinforcing Early strongly.
