Is the Invasion Ended ? The New York Dilly News, which seems to possess facilities for obtaining information respecting the movements and intentions of the ces which loyal journals do not so readily arrive at, prints a letter from its Baltimor correspondent, in which these sentences occur: best informed, that the present movement into hat State is being made by a very large force of the best soldiers in the Confederate army that the party who burned the houses in Cham will move rapidly from plees to place; that they will be followed in a few days by the main body of the forces destined for the invasion of Pennof the lorgest destined for the invasion of Pennish 'sylvable', and that Harriburg and Pittsburgh will probably be the two points to which the Goldederste army will first proceed. There is and to be abundent lastimmy in town to the first that this invading army counts of at least 75,000 troops, a part of whom have been recently detached from General Line's army, and probably have not resched the Poteman yet."

The New York World, also very good author which found place in the contempt, escape which found place in the columns yesterday; "Lee will now adopt a bolder strategy. Having weakened and worn-away the forces of his adversary, and no longer fearing for the safety of Richmond, he will 'compal Gract to change his position, or will make the North pay the penalty of pursisting in a hopeless undertaking by suffering the same horrors of invasion which it has been inflicting on the South. General Hooter. Major General Hooker was in the city yest day, on his way to Washington. He was re lieved, at his own request, of the command the 20th Army Corps, Army of the Camberland and took his departure from the front on Thurs day last. We understand this action of Gener. coker to have resulted from a feeling, on his part, that an indignity was done him by the ap ment of General Howard to thosomma I the Army of the Tennousce, to succeed Mc Pherson. It will be remembered that, General Hooker is General Howard's senior in rank and sorvice, and was hi commanding gentral in the Army of the Potomac. It is alleged that some dissatisfaction exists among other officers, as to the appointment, which was made by the authorists at Washington.

Since Gen. Hopker's appearance in the West, his has performed allent and complouous aervices in many fields. His 'Battle above the Glouds,' on Lookont Mountain, and the important part he bere in the spifedid victory at Mission Ridge, will be recognized as among the brightest page of our military history. During the present campaign, his corps has had a very large share of the fighting; and while groully reduced in numbers, was never in better monite than what Gen. Hocker parted from it. The Pittsburgh Guzeffe. How the British Were Whipped the Other Day in New Zealand.

The sangulary defeat of the Beitish forces by an undisciplined validity of New Zealand savages, at the Gate Pale on the 29th of May, was, according to the admissions of the correspond ent of the London There, a mustignominious and ortifying dieaster. The "rebel" position consisted of two peaks, one thousand vards anart. connected by Ecovered way, and surrounded by vide-pits and an inner line of rail fence, maked by branches of trees. Unquestionable information has reached head-quarters showing that Forest and Loo were terribly crippled at Tupelo. Five Colongla were killed, eight other field officers badly wounded, and over 25 500 men killed and wounded. The official reports shows that Smith had less than 100 killed and about 500 wounded. Had Smith's supply of provisions and ammunition been greater be would have totally routed the rabels, and complet by broken up their organization. ured terms. It is said that no coppernead could live in the atmosphere of Christ Charch pulpit yesterday.

We had the plessure of hearing Rev. James Prestley D. D., presching from Dan. 3, 16: "Shadreck, Merhach, and Abednego, answered and raid, O, Nebuchadnessar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter." After an appropriate introduction, the Doctor discussed the greatness of the trial to which the three young Hebrews were exposed. It was as great as any to which we are exposed in this day. Nebuchadnessar was a very tyrannical monarch, but the young men would neither violate their conscience ner their religion. We should not obey laws that contravene the laws of God, which are supreme in every land. It is hard to resilt a stand, against the law of the land-to stand against he law of the land-to stand against he law of the land-to stand against Sisvery—liceured gambfing—licensed horseracing, &c. It does not cost much now to be an anti slavery man. But it did "in the days of rotten eggs."

Gratitude might have been plead by the young men as a reason why they should have complied with the King's demand. There is a King now called Party, which men support out of gratitude. They are indebted to "the party," and "they go it blind." The party that it composed of such material is eight times out of ten the dominant party.

The force of universal example might have go with the malititude. The church has always been in the minority because her principles are uppopular.

The penalty of disobedience was very great. Life is areat. The G d of Israei might have been giverfed by their lives. But they had icontrad that God's glory could not be advanced by doing that which is wrong.

They were ment thair trial in an excellent spinit. They ment in an intelligent spirit. They manifested a digrafted and praiseworthy companie. He that believeth thall not make haste. They marifested a cenetant relying trust in God. Never until within the last three years was there anything life a my ring that seemed to the tin God. Men need not be arbanard of their absolutionism in these days. They may weer the name "Abelition" on their sleeres; "it is attite of abelility."

God amply rewarded the young men for their faithfolness and uprightness. Three were cart into the furnace, but a fourth appeared, who was like unto the Son of G.d. If men will only a right, they will have the presence of God. ight, they will have the presence of God.
Mor. lity was promoted among the people, and the personation was stopped by these young He brew worthiers refusing to obey the impiess de-mund of the King, and their not being carefu to an army the control of the control of the to an army the control of the co
