Mr. Ward's residence is on the south side of the Mishoning river. The rolling mill is on the nerth bank of the Triver, near and east of the bridge, and on the west side of Musquite Crock.
The furthere is some eighty rods north easterly from the rolling mill and on the east side of the creek. A railroad track runs from the rolling mill past, and on the east side of, the furnace to the depot. Mr. Ward was in the habit of pasting on this track to the furnace every evening about nine o'clock, that being casting time. On that swining, shortly before nine o'clock, James Ward, Junior, son of the deceased and one of the Company, was walking from the rolling mill to the juriace. On the track, and at a point nur the eststend of the bridge over the creek, where a clump of tree obscures the light from where a clump of trees obscures the light fro where a clump of trees obscures the light from the furness and mill, he encountered Robbins and the woman, apparently waiting for some one.
Bhe thrust the notice toward him and asked him if he wrote it. He said he did not, but it was all the rime as if he had. She then struck him with a picc offend she held in her hand, knockedlim, down and stinck him, after he was down.
His rice and walked some distance towards the furnace, and then towards the office, which is on the cast side of the railroad track, they following him cluse. Near the office they stracked him, again. She knocked him down, and Robbins kinked him in the breast and face while he was down. He cried "murder," which brought out some of the hands at work in the furnace, and also brought up his father, who had attended a prayar mealing in the severing, and had walked with the minister to the village, and was appricabling the furnace in a different direction from his usual route by the railroad track.
Young Ward had risen to his feet when his

A divastor from Green Castle, dated 8 n. m. weunded. Gazeral Keily defeated the rabels. A dispatch from Green Castle, dated 3 p. m., states that a gentleman had just arrived there who says he saw the rabels crossing at Williamsport between 5 and 13 colock tills morning, sizor eight thousand strong, infantry and cavairy. We had communication from this point by teigraph with Siste line Station at 8 colock this overlag. The communication does not extend tryond Green Castle, the rabels having entend Middlebury, cleven miles north of liegerstown. In what force they occupy Middlebury, is not kn wn, but it is presumed that they have more than the five regiments which entered Hagarstown this morning.

Cor grassional district in this State, is for 310 men per district more than required in Pennsylvanis, and for 714 men per district more than Massachusetts and New Hampshire. I name the quotas assigned elsewherk. There are no differences in the character of the population of these States to accent for these discrepannoles. The mist the veriege demand made upon each district is for 2167 men. The causair returns show that the proportion of aliens and females in the large species should make their quota less than in other sections. These returns are confirmed by the charge or of their respective populations. Not only are aliens numerous in New York and Rocklyn but females make a layer recondem. n led f om New York and Br onlyn is still more scarting, white in these clies twenty-size project of the population is carolied, while in Briton cally 12.4 per cent, or less than one-half of that ratio are mode liable to be drafted. The ten Congressionsi districts of Massachasetts are required to farnish, under the last call, only 21.670 men; the first ten Congressionsi districts in this State are called on for 55,954, miking an excess of 4281. It is clear that great injunities is done under these expollments. I to not mean to find fault with those who made hem. In New York and Brooklyn I know tha shat they state is true ... that it to not possio what they state is true-man; it is not position to avoid the enrollment there of persons who are not liable to be drafted because they are allons or non residents. Those whose names are thus errencously put down have no interest in correcting the lists, while the fact that they awell the strollment being giveous barthens upon the districts to which they are charged. The the districts to which they are charged. The draft makes a heavy drain upon all parts of our cunty. In our cities it is a terrible indiction. A grast portion of their inhabitants live upon their daily wages, which they must receive with regularity to enable them to give food, fael and abolier to they families. These can only bookto:ned by cash payments. The pay of soldiers, which is made at irregular times, and, percaps, which is made at fregular times, and, percaps, at comparatively long periods, will not provide the necessary support for their families is ditualike New York and Brooklyn, and they are frequently broken up not frained.

Resty consideration of fastice and humanity demands that severer burthers should not be thrown upon them. It is proper I should say that since the beginning of this civil war these cities have not only furnished their full quotas, but are to-day entitled to a cradit of about 3000 thees year's men. It would be an act of justles to count each of there men against three men are the present call for service for one year. But these cities have done more; they have on nater the present call for service for one year. But these cities have done more; they have on repeated occasions promptly answered the calls of the Department in times of poculiar peril. They have been enabled to do this because, at great, expense, they have kept up wall dissiplinate militiat, the cost of which has been as much fer the advantage of the United States as for the city covernments. There excessive amoultenstable subject to heavy taxation thouse who have been for most in filling the national treasury, and giving to the government the money which have enabled it to pay its soldiers.
