A NEW FEATURE.

We call the attention of those of our readers who are interested in commercial and financial transactions (and who is not there, (day)?) to the introduction of a new feature in the Commercial Department of our "Pittsburgh Daily Stock Report," made exclusively for the Gazette by Messrs. Bonner, McCloskey & Co., one of the most extensive stock-broking firms in this city. Their report of the day's down of various stocks, including the stocks of companies which will be of special value to those interested in such speculations. The quotations may always be regarded as strictly reliable, the high business standing of Messrs. Bonner, McCloskey & Co. furnishing ample guarantees that only "safe" transactions will be reported.

Georgia.

We do not in so much know what degree of responsibility is to be attached to the report, which comes to us from Washington, that an authorized agent of the State of Georgia has been accredited to our Government for the purpose of ascertaining upon what terms that State will be admitted to the Union. We have some reason, however, beyond the Washington dispatch, to believe that the report is true. The New York "Commercial Advertiser" of Wednesday evening has in an article which we copied in Friday, asserted that such an agent was in the city, and the Tribune of Thursday morning published a lengthy communication from a citizen of Georgia proposing gradual emancipation as a means of restoring the Union—a proposal, by the way, which the Tribune receives with manifest favor. Assuming, therefore, that the report is true that a peace commission from Georgia arrived at Washington, we regard the fact as one of the most significant and hopeful signs of the times.

It has always been the belief of a large number of our public men that the South would yield piece-meal—by communities and States. The process of reconstruction, so far as it has progressed, has been effected in this way. Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Tennessee and West Virginia are illustrations. In the New York "Commercial Advertiser" of Wednesday evening, in an article which we copied in Friday, asserted that such an agent was in the city, and the Tribune of Thursday morning published a lengthy communication from a citizen of Georgia proposing gradual emancipation as a means of restoring the Union—a proposal, by the way, which the Tribune receives with manifest favor. Assuming, therefore, that the report is true that a peace commission from Georgia arrived at Washington, we regard the fact as one of the most significant and hopeful signs of the times.

Mr. Greeley on Emancipation.

The New York "Review" of Thursday contains a letter from a Conservative Georgian advocating a system of gradual emancipation as one of the bases of Peace and Union in accordance with President Lincoln's suggestions. We are assured that such a recommendation would be widely acceptable to the people of the new State of Georgia, and that the Unionists of that State, as well as the friends of the Union in the other Southern States, would be all in favor of such a measure.
