Resolved, That any enrolled man have the privilege, during Wednesday, of making his subscription to the bounty fund before the list of enrolled men be read. Concert .-- Combination --- Conspiracy ---- Whither are we Drifting

The spirit of the great complexor to discr-ganize our nation is rapidly descending into, and spreading through all the affairs of life. From combinations to distract the administra From combinations to distract the administra-tion of government, derange its finances; and spread general distrast, it comes cown to divert and pervert the most common affairs of every day life, from their natural and ourstemary op-eration. We have not, now, alone to contend with miners and hucksters, in their efforts to extort high prices, but we are to be based with the same gready and unscruppilons addion in things of the most common necessity and daily supply.

the same gready and unscriptions action in things of the most common necessity and daily supply.

For example: It is now said that the gardeners have combined to exact fixed and high prices, or let their products rot: that farmers concern certain rates for hay, cate, batter, cert to seems on their rates for hay, cate, batter, cert to seems are able to keep them at home eggs, &c., and are able to keep them at home eggs, &c., and are able to keep them at home eggs, &c., and are able to keep them at home can we look how that it is not discoverable—lacting the prevalence of fearful social evils. It is the very opposite of the common interest. It is the very opposite of the common interest. It is the very opposite of the common interest in a general welfare which is the very bond of human society. And it is easy to see that so human society. And it is easy to see that so opposing associations and countersoting measures qually reprehensible. Thus though the one often neutralizes the effect of the other, and the felly and the injusty of both comes to be perfectly and dist, they are not the less criminal. And it is the highest duty of all men to support And it is the highest duty of all men to support the government in suppressing its enemies, it is one of our a situle lower in degree, to discourant the selfah and greedy combinations which as surely tend to dissention and to the dissolution of the bonds of union and peace; and which, if carried out to their witimate, state, would convert a community into a mere assemblacy of contending factions, and the inevitable consequence of ruch a state, is to call into place and authority a power capable of reducing such factions to order, by whatever force the case might require.
