Chroaco, August 31.

The National Democratic Convention assembled at 10 o'clock this morning. Immediately after the Convention was called to order, prayer was effered up by the Rev. D. Helsey.

Mr. Wicklife then rose and said that the delegates from the West were of the opinion that creamstances mry occur between new and the sith of March next, for the Democracy of the canniver to meat in convention seesin. He therecircumstances may occar between now and the sith of March next, for the Democracy of the country to meet in convention again. He therefore moved the following resolution, which was unsulmously adopted:

Revoiced, That this Convention shall not be discoived by the adjournment at the close of its business, but shall remain organized, subject to be called at any time and place that the Executive National Committee may designate.

The following communication was thur received from the National Democratic Committee, and was presented by Mr. Lawrence of Rhode Island:
At a meeting of the National Democratic Convention at the Sherman House, Chicago, August 31st, 1884, the following resolution was adopted:

Argust 31st, 1864, the following resolution was adopted:

Wheness, A respectful devotion to the memory of Stephen A. Pouglas, the great stateman of the west, was the crowning motive which induced the Committee to concur in calling the Convention in Chicago. Now, therefore, it is the deliberate conviction of this Committee, that had his life been spared, his gigantic greap of mind, taken in connection with his declaration that was its dismin, a declaration which time has proved, the windom of which would have long since restored the power of the federal compact and avoided that terribe loss of life for which wollded much the despired, which is the great berrier to the restoration of peace and union. Thos. B Florence, Chairman: Wm. Finn, and C. T. Alkens, Sacretaries. Toos. B forence, Chairman: Wm. Filin, and C. T. Aikens, Secretaries.

The President then stated the question before the ochrention to be on ordering the previous question, cominating a candidate for the Presidency, and it was ordered without dissoit. The vote was then taken by States, Connecticat and Otio having been passed for the moment. The vote stood as follows:
