New York Sopt 2.—The Bristol (East Tennessee) Gusette of the 33d all, says: The Union cavalry whice charged into Regorerille captured Ron. (?) J. E. Harkell, Col. Walker, Lieut. Col. Bisvins and the Provott Marshal, togsther with Fineteen privates. Three of the privaners were shot down in cold blood by a deserter from the rebel army. In the meantime artillery had been sent from Knoxville to the vicinity of Ball's Geg. while a beavy force of cavalry advanced in that direction on Tuesday. They attacked the rebels, who fell back to Joneboro. We learn that the Yankees have advanced to within a few mile. of Kingsport.

The Gazette says intelligence from East Tennessee represents the condition of the people in the country as becoming more and more distressing. NO. 62 FIFTH STREET.
