The order of the Sons of Liberty has been expected in Detroit. The military authorities arised the papers of the order out of the safe of S. Dow Elwood, a bookseller, and President of the Common Council, and very recently a meanber of the Democratic State Contral Committee.

They show, like those seized elsewhere, that the chiect intended to be attained by the organisation is utterly hostile to any national government where, and completely friendly to the rebelf, and promotive of their cause. "We understand," says the Tribune, "that proceedings in the Federal court against Mr. Elwood are in contemplation, based upon a recent statute insking it punishable to conspire against the Government.

Morrible Murder in Bucks County. On Friday afternoon one of the most herrible murders ever heard of was committed by a youth in Bristel, Bucks county. It appears that a boy named Charles Johnson, aged about eleven year living in the above place, entired a lad about sev en years, named Jos. Fisher, into the garret of the house occupied by the former, and there deliberhouse occupied by the former, and there deliberately shot him. After committing the horrible crime, the youthful offender dragged fils victim down stairs and into the alley. Here he placed a heap of shavings, and in order to hids the deed he isid the body upon the shavings and their est fire to them. The smore arising from the shavings caused the citizent to inquire into the matter, when, to their astonishment, they discovered the dead body of the led, partly consumed. The youthful murders was taken into castedy, when he confessed his guit, but gave no reasons for his stroctous conduct. The nurder caused no little excitement in Bristol, and the conduct of the lad was the general theme of conversation.

CITY AND SUBURBAN. Terrific Hall Storm.

On Saturday evening, a large pertion of Bea-ver occupt was visited by one of the most ter-rific ball storms on record. Its greates: fury the Braver and Raccoon. The damage done to the corn was very considerable. In some places whole fields were beaten down into the ground and utterly distruyed, while in other localities the ears and blades were stripped of, ground and suggesting the stocks standing. The damage to the fruit trees was also extensive. In some exchards the branches were broken off, and the trees atmost destroyed. The apple trees unfigered most, as they were heavily ladeu with fruit, a great part of which was knocked of Tah half stones were not very large, but they fell in him stones were not very large, but they fell in him sense quantities. A gentleman states that on Sunday morning, while on his way to church, he stopped at a place on the road side where the half had dritted, and assertiated the depth to be two and a half feet! The ground was thickly overed in every direction, but in some localities the quantity was much larger than in others. The damage caused by the storm, although distributed over a large tract of country, would foot up thousands of dollars.
