TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 29th, 1864.

There was but little done to-day of a financial character, and the only new feature we have to notice is a slight decline in gold, which closed late this evening at 199. Oil stocks were quiet, and as there was but comparatively nothing doing, there are no changes to make in quotations. A sale of 200 shares of Cherry Run Central Oil stock at 75¾ is reported on the street—was reported at 75¾.

The sale of stocks at McClelland's auction was well attended last evening, taking all things into consideration, and prices, generally, were pretty well sustained. The following are the particulars of the sale:

200 shares Cherry Run Central Oil stock 1.75
200 do Horse Run 1.00

The Dry Goods Auction Sales at New York on Tuesday do not appear to have been satisfactorily to the parties. The Tribune says at Haggerty and Orr's the attendance was liberal. Many lines of goods fell 5 to 10, 20 and 25 per cent. Full dollar prints of a style were brought 35 cents, sold at 30 and the sale stopped. In prior sales from 60 to 80, sold at 42@46; 40-inch bagging sold 70; 1 p-a sold at 1.10 to 1.12 per yard. Other garments prices 10 to 15 on staple goods; over that in comparison with former quotations. Messrs. Hunnewell & Co. had a fair sale of Indian and Italian; a good deal of a generally inferior character. The bidding was spirited and the quotations irregular. Messrs. Thompson & Hall had a large sale of foreign and domestic goods. The sale was well attended and the prices were satisfactory to buyers in many articles. Messrs. Allegheny Live Stock Market.

Reported Exclusively for the Gazette.

ALLEGHENY CITY, September 29—A large number of cattle were offered for sale on Monday—amounting to at least 1500. Sales were very slow, but there was no appreciable decline in prices from former rates. Most of the sales were for the "retail trade," but butchers did not seem willing to buy for different reasons. The great depression which has taken place in the price of gold has effect dishibits and fat cattle, and when informed that they could get gold for more than four cents a pound for their hides and that there was a falling off of at least three cents a pound for fat—those being there great source of profit—they felt rather reluctant to buy.

Prime cattle are scarce and still rule high. Common stock is super abundant.

Government buyers have been dealing very lightly, and making few purchases, which is an additional reason for the dullness of sales. They will buy nothing but the best cattle.

Stock cattle are in good demand and sell readily at from 4 to 6½, as to quality. Good stock steers averaging from 8 to 9 hundred pounds are wanted for shipment east.

The receipts of sheep continue light, and with a fair retail demand, the market rules firm, and prices are well sustained, ranging from 6 to 6½, as to quality.

The eastern markets from all we can learn, are pretty well supplied, and there is consequently but little demand for shipments.

The supply of hogs continue very short, and good heavy cool, suitable for retailing, bring full prices, say from 12 to 13c, gross. The general impression, however, is that these prices cannot be sustained.

The following is an accurate and reliable report of all of the leading sales of cattle:

J Murtaugh retailed 23 head small stock at from 3 to 4 cents.

J Rodertson sold 6 head of common to good stock at 3@5 cents.

J Poole retailed a mixed lot of 23 head at from 5 to 6½ cents.

J Mcllen sold retailed 22 head of small cows and heifers, in good condition, at 6½.

O A Fisher retailed 23 head of very common cows and heifers at 5@6.

Merrick & Pond retailed 103 head fair Ohio stock at 5@7c.

Gross & Co export having retailed 110 head at from 3½ to 6½.

Myers & Brownfield 20 head of Illinois steers at from 6 to 7c.

J Rooney sold 62 head of fine small Ohio steers, averaging 925 lbs, at 6½.

Jas McAllister retailed a mixed lot of 41 head at prices ranging from 5 to 6.

C Marks & Co retailed a rough lot of 31 head Illinois steers at 5@6c.

P Ohio retailed 43 head of fair Ohio steers and cows at 6@6½c.

Leach & Co retailed 88 head of genuine "scalawags" at 3½@5½c.

Greenwald & Co sold in all about 90 head at prices ranging from 3½@6½c.

Marks & Co retailed 150 head at prices ranging from 6 to 7½—the latter figure for extra cattle.

J Weiler wholesaled 19 head of common stock at 5 cents.

M O Bishop wholesaled 16 head of common stock to Thurman at 4½@5.

J Torbet wholesaled 19 head of fair heavy steers and oxen to J H Glass at 6c.

S Gannon retailed 22 head at from 4½ to 6½, for common to prime.

Nicholas Carr retailed a mixed lot of 19 head at 5@6 cents.

L Gwaist & Co retailed 42 head of light Illinois steers at 5@6c.

H Chapman sold 16 head of fair small stock at 5c.

E Mooney sold 16 head of very rough inferior cows and heifers—sure in market before—at 4½c.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

THURSDAY, Sept. 29, 1864

Business was almost completely suspended to-day owing to the excitement in consequence of the conventition and the attaching gains established. Quite a number of commercial houses were entirely closed, and the business that was transacted, the balance of them might just as well followed suit. It is true there was a great number of strangers in the city, and it is also a fact that they did not come to buy or sell merchandize, but to see and take part in the convention. There was nothing whatever done in the line of groceries, and but very little in grain. Some sale of barley and oats were made from first hands at $1,75 per bush for the former and 80c for the latter. Butter, eggs, cheese, apples and other articles of a similar character, were not molested in the least, and it must be taken for granted that prices have undergone no change.

There is nothing new to say about provisions, with the exception that the government has advertised for 5 000,000 pounds of mess pork and similar amount of bacon sides, shoulders and hams—making in all 10,000,000 pounds—to be delivered at Cincinnati, Louisville, St Louis, Chicago, Baltimore, New York, or Boston, as each bidder may select. The proposals are issued by Major Du Barry, United States Commissary at Cincinnati.
