Send in the Election Returns. The County Committee having secured Con-Hall, Pink street, as Headquarters on Tassday night of the election, October 11th, our friends throughout the county are requested to see to it that some one is sent in from each election disiriot as soon as the vete for Congress is counted off, with the returns. Mossengers will be received at the doors as soon as they arrive. The friends of Lincoln and Johnson in each district are urgently requested to attend to this matter at once, and let us have a full return from the county on next Tuesday night. A. M. BROWN, Chairman Union County Committee nds, Secretary.

Accidental Deaths. Accidental Peaties.

On Monday morning last, Mr. John Clinger, an old dissen of Toder township, mot with a vicion death in the following manner: He had harnessed his team and had loaded his wagon, when he undertook to exchange the bridles on his horses. While doing this, one of the horses became drightened, and commenced to make offorty to run away. Hr. C. tried to hold him, but the horses being without a bridle, he could net do it; and was thrown under the homes' feet, when the 'main' ran away, drawing the loaded wagon orey the protitate man's body. One of the wheels passed over his breet, and another over his head, crushing his skull and killing over his head, crushing his skull and killing him on the sped. On Thusday morning, a little son of Reero Reero hamed Caradoo Reero, and about eight years, amployed in the mines of the Cambria Iron Company, met a shocking death by being thrown from a mule. He was riding the animal to the mines, whan it was startled by the noise of some boys, and jumping suddenly to one side threw the boy off. His feet, however, ought in the harbers on the mule, when the animal started on a full run hack to the stable, dragging the boy covaral hundred yards and dashing his brains out with his heels as he rao.

On the same day, a little son of Mr. Conrad Abts, residing at Forkinsville, shoutseven years old white attempting to cross the canal lock at that piges on the balance beam, fell into the tech old, while attempting to cross the canal lock at that piece on the balance beam, fell into the lock Another distressing accident occurred about noon on Thursday. A little German boy, whose name we did not learn, while gathering coal on the rairroad running to the mines, was run over by a descending coal car and killed. McClellan.

At a recent Union demonstration, held in Monongahela City, Hon. Wm. McKennan, one of the speakers, said, that "Old Abe" had exhausted every appliance known to human ingenuity to make McCiellan a gallant and successful warrior. While the people cried out to the Pressake, give us a General who will do something. who is equal to the demand upon him, who will not dig the grave of the nation within the sound of the enemy's cannon—while the patience of Congress and the Cabinat was wearing and finally, wore out with the inordinate cost of wain display wore cut with the inordinate cost of vain display and of the failure of movements, Old Abe ching to him, through evil and through good report, hoping and praying that he might do better. By day and by night he curried and pampered him, kicked and coaxed him, seeded and praised him, Hickled and lashed him, oathed and blank-eted him, physicked and nursed him, nation and rubbed him, begged and cursed him, patted and rubbed him, begged and cursed him, until faulty in the agony of despair, the wornout President exclaimed: "Hels h—I on a parade, but uiterly inefficient in action."

Mass Beeting in Birmingham. citisens of Birmingham was held last evening at the Town Hall, Jaz. M'Davel in the chair. But gess Aughinbaugh was elected Vice President.
J. J. Siebeneck delivered a very spirited address with great applicate. He was followed by Charles W. Robb, Eq., who delivered one of the best speeches of the campaign. Mr. Robb is an excellent speaker, and we regret that we have not room for a principal of his remarks. The meeting afformed with three cheers for the Union candidates.

RIOTOUS COSPECT.—Yesterday Wm. Miller, the proprietor; of a salcon in Cresiline, Ohio, appeared before Mayor Alexander and entered a complaint against Grove Davis, Edward Kenard and Wm. New York, Oct. 7.—The Brooklyn Union of to-day says that an occasional correspondent from Washington writes under date of yesterday.

I have it from good authority that at the time of writing (one P. M.), General Sherman and a delegation from deorgia are is council with the President. a delegation from Georgia are is council with the President."

After a week of immense activity, a full onessed in the auction business. This morning only one or two of the leading houses had any sales. There was one case by Haggerty & Oo., which brought together a large number of hugers and speculators, and which passed off spiritsdily and with considerable success. The sakalogue included size coths and cassimetr. The great failure of the sale was a plandid lot of six is chapalle cleaff cloth, which are not vary often put up at public sale in this country. The goods embraced silk and mixed paintons, which cold very freely at $7,75 and $8; plain fancy, casel, mers and cloakings. $5,60 and 6,46, fancy pidles, $6,655; Moscow beavers, $8,00 and 4,75, and so. The feeling among the buyers was extremely buoryns, and the andes of prices, as comparted with similar cales of fast week, was elightly better in the fact that the spillis of the importers, buyers and anotioneers, apparently in sympathy with the fay, were caustually light and cheerfal.

A Herold's correspondent, before Richmond says: Throughout the past twenty-four hour advance on Richmond from the north side of the James, while it has mot no obstacle, has be itated by the demonstrated impossib same, waits it has met no obstacle, has been facilitated by the demonstrated inpossibility of the enemy's attempt to repossess himself of Fort Herricos, a work captured by General Entier on the 19th, when the enemy were so severely hardled and repulsed.

Foveral shots were fired yesterday. The enemy finally gave up attempting to drive us out.

A Hereld's 18 h Corps special says: No further movements have taken place along the front. The fire of the sharpshooters has elmyst cassed. The robel dead still along the ground in front of the works they attempted to take from us. An attempt to bury conte of them was abstacled by our men in consequence a fire opened upon them by the rebels.

The stemy were busily engaged last night in crossing the river. They made considerable noise, but their object in view was not dicovered.

Descriptions in from the ganboatt, who state that the utmost pane still reigns in Bich.

The rebel loss in the asseults on our works i stated by themselves at 4,000.

The Times' correspondent says of Early's retreated Woodslock: The robel officers barricaded the s'reets to compel them to face us. The men it reatered to destroy the town unless permitted to pass though. pass through.
Probably half of Early's artillery was captur-Probably half of Karly's artinory was espurad, and mail arms w. restatered everywhere on the road south of Winchester. Maj. Dorland's cummand had gathered up to the 27th, 11,000 muskate between the latter place and Opequan river, where the battle of the 9th was fought. More has since been brought in.

Virginia the Pillar of the Confederacy. An, Ac, Ac.

NEW YORK, Oct. 7. - The Richmond Ecomin the 4th, in a long review on the recent adrance upon that city by Grant, on the the north side of the James, evinces the greatest anxiety concerning the situation, and bewalls the loss f a tattery at Harrison works, captured by our of a lattery at Harrison works, captured by our forces and beld afterwards against several despectate assaults by the robels, in which their losses were heavy. It concludes as follows: Let troops be brought to Virginia without delay, from anywhere, for Virginia is the pillar of the Confederacy. At present the lines are to rune but their ratety cannot be fairly left to Lee's present ermy, which has so great a lead out taiready.

The Richmond Eraminer of the 4th says: The Stehmond Eraminer of the 4th says: The Stehmond Conder was run in on Saturday and besched off Wilmington to escape capture. Mrs. Greenow, a parasengar, is said to have been drowsed. Hon. J. P. Halcomb, also a parsen-

The Fisser Washington special says: General Joseph II. Wilson, of lilinots, was browned Major General Joseph II. Wilson, of lilinots, was browned Major General for gallam and meritorieus condont under Sheridan, and assigned to the command of the cavalry of Sheridan's army.

Richmond papers of the 3d and 4th, contain a rebullaistery of the late operations of Genat's army, and make a deperate skort to concess their loss to be a little Grand's gain, but finally confess that on the north side of the James, our forces made an important lodgment, which they tried to drive us from, but failed, and were subsequently compelled to conform their lines to a new state of things, by abandoning others. In regard to the south, side operations, they also actait that their outer line of works were carried, but sleim that they captured fifteen hundred prisoners, which is a most significant ad mission that Lev's army altogether, its tow weak to hold the present extended lines, and appeals for reinforcements.

The Herdid's 10th corps special of the 4th inst says: We are receiving deserters from the tobir rabis daily, most of them from local defence troops of Richmond, many of them being poor laboring men, glad of the opportunity of escaping. Among the citizens within the present lines of occupation is Mr. Dobbs, owner of Hibby prison. Gen. Butler ordered him to be sent to the rear.

The Montross (Sootland) Review says that it learns from a quarter quite reliable, that Earl Airlis, who has gone to the United States, carries the views of the Government on the present speciol of affairs, and will offer himself to the Confederacy as a medium of communication with the Britsh government.

The Richmond Receivers of the 3d says: It is no longer accorne that our army in Oborgie him motor, but some say has only ordered the view of the force says that only ordered the view of the Army and only ordered the view of the Army and vill offer himself to the Confederacy as a medium of communication with the Bri

There is great activity at Alexandria. Teains are running to Manassas Gap and Cuipepper. General Banks was at the War Department to-day. It is understood that he will go North WASHINGTON, Oct. 7 .- The intelligence from the Army of the Potomac to-day is that unusual quiet prevailed during Wednesday night and pesterday morning. Our forces on the south side are within sound and sight of the railroad, and in a strong position, capable of resisting sisting any rebel arracits. It appears that the rebels are not using that railroad to any Washington Items. Washington, Out. 7.—Special agents have sen appointed to purchase cotton on Govern nent secount, the object being to encourage the sending to market of crops in the tarritory t shel rule and regulations. The Treasury De partment have been forced into conjunction with he military. The following are the names of the agents: Ges. H. Ellery, New York, at Memphis, O. W. Cutler, Missouri, at New Orleans, and Green Adams, Kentucky, at Nashville. The last named will resign his presen position as 6th Auditor of the Treasury to accept the appointment.

Mr. Quincy, of Illinois, has telegraphed to the Post Office Department that the Hamibal and St. Joseph Railroad recently logared by the rebel ridd has been repaired. Mails from the letter place have been received at his office. Mile for the West have been forwarded. No mails have been lost, going or coming.

Files of Charieston, S. C., papers, including 25th of September, have been received here. The Mercury contains a letter from Bichmond. Admitting the situation as serious at Fasher'. Hill. The correspondent cays: It is the strong-ert position in the Shamandan't Valley. Early has been driven from that, and to insure deliverance, we must call out and concentrate every available make.

The Mercury asys: When Early assumed the aggressive, and crossed the Potomac into Maryland, we ventured and expressed the opinion thands an movement could produce nothing but evil to our causa. The subsequent burning of Chames-hourg, and military fourtables about Watbington, only confirmed our fears. Time has 1 asset on, and we now have realized the finite of this expedition. The army it resued it in the Valley of Virginia. Gen. Early has defeated him in two battles. It is all, these two battles have added power for the note the continue of the draft now at the continue of the draft N r is this ail, there two battles have added rewerfully to the enforcement of the draft now gig on in the North, and will thus add tens of those and more to cur enemies in the field. To cur apprehension it was clear that Early's expedition into Maryland was like General Long-treet's to Knowville, and was part of that division. This policy has continually elogged our success, and destroyed its fruits before they were realised. It is this which has cost us half of Georgia. Gen. Hood was faithful to it when he sent all his cavairy and ensured the fall of Atlanta.

From Fortress Monroe. FOURTHERS MONROS, Oat. 6 .- Gen Gract arrived his evening from the front en route to Wash ogton. The assemblip Champion, hence on the 5th will epsir and again sail to morrew.

The Georgia Peace Propositions. The Georgia Peace Propositions.

New Yoar, Oct. 5—The Past's Atlanta correspondent, gives the following as a true varsion of the Georgia peace proposale:

The armed foot has pressed heavily upon this peorie, and they feel the iron hand of Sherman's greaping and holding their very life, and I am sure with a vivid consciousness of the errors of the peasand the dread foreboding of the coming future, that they are ready fer peacy on all almost any terms.

Neither the newspapers nor the leaders coming fature, that they are ready fer peacy on all almost any terms.

Nicither the newspapers nor the leaders say this, but there are strong indications row evident in that direction. One of their papers proceed deliberately to discuss the propriety of Governor Brown's acceptance of Sherman's invitation to some to Atlanta: You have no doubt soon a report of such an invitation having been extended which has this much of truth that while a prominent cities was dining with Sherman one day, the gentleman remarked, "I wish, General, that Governor Brown could see and talk with you." "Lies thim come," said the General, "I have no objection to his coming within my lines; he shall pass saidly in and out. There are valuable records here which he would no doubt like to got and peserve. Let him come, I would like to see him. I presumes the invitation, however, was divised the server of the product of the substantian was dely cellvered to you. I question, however, was duly relivered to you. I question, however, if he was prepared just at the moment to accept and perhaps we shall have the pleasure of see irg him when we arrive at Mason or Augusta.
