NATIONAL UNION NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT:

ABRAHAM LINCOLN, of Illinois.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:

ANDREW JOHNSON, of Tennessee.

Pennsylvania and Indiana.

The close contest in Pennsylvania, as compared with the overwhelming rout of the Copperheads in Indiana, surprises many people. Before the election, the friends of the Union felt quite as much solicitude about the result in the latter State as in the former. But while the first is just saved, and nothing to spare, the other is swept as by a tornado. Of course there must be reasons for this difference. Some will say that it turned out so because Pennsylvania has no Governor Morton to pour the mighty energies of his patriotic heart into the people. There is something in that to be sure; but it is not sufficient to account for all the difference. We must look further than that if we would solve the problem.

In the West, men both good and bad, are more frank and outspoken than they are in this State; hence Copperheadism in Indiana showed itself to be what it really is—treason. Organized and armed conspirators against the Government had proceeded almost to the verge of overt treason, when they were arrested, tried and punished. This opened the eyes of the Democracy, and caused all the honest men among them to turn their backs upon their traitorous leaders and vote with the friends of Lincoln and the Union. The effect of the audacity of the conspirators was similar to that of the bomb nation of Vallandigham in 1863. It blew the party to atoms. The men who did these things supposed the masses of their party to be as arrant scoundrels as they were themselves; but the result showed how grossly they were mistaken.

In Pennsylvania, on the other hand, the leaders of the same party to which these bold traitors belong, affect much patriotism and love for the Union and the Constitution. They carefully conceal their treason, and even pretend to be in favor of a vigorous prosecution of the war. Thus they delude the old democracy with the notion that the party whose representatives met in convention at Chicago the other day, is the same old loyal Democracy that existed in the days of JEFFERSON and JACKSON, and that Little Mac is as loyal to the government as were those old worthies. So thinking, many of them continue to vote what they fondly imagine to be "the democratic ticket."

In Pennsylvania, the Copperhead lion is sneaking, hypocritical, jesuitical thing, whereas in the western States it is open and defiant. Here it is a snake in the grass; there it is out where men can see it, and where they have seen it and crushed it. Let it be our work, therefore, between now and the 8th of November, to chase our snake out of the grass, and then we shall see how the honest Democracy of Pennsylvania will jump upon it and crush it into the dust.

The Copperhead leaders of Pennsylvania are the Dallahs of that party, while the armed rebels of the South, and the bold conspirators of the West are the lyers in wait. With soft blandishments and honied phrases, they are trying to lull the national Samson to sleep, that they may despoil him of his strength, and then rouse him to consciousness with the mocking cry, "the Philistines be upon thee, Samson!" Let the fate of that strong man, cursed to destruction through treachery, be a warning to us to keep wide awake while enemies in every guise beset us.

The State Election.

We give below the corrected returns from the various counties heard from:

The counties to be heard from gave about an equal vote last year. Allowing sufficient margin for possible losses in these, and corrections in the above table, we do not see how our majority on the home vote can be figured below 2,000.

The soldier's vote can not fail to elect Kasson.

Indiana.

There is a clear Union majority of 21,07 in fifty counties—a little more than half the State, which shows a gain over the vote of 1863, when LANE was elected by 9,780, of 21,63

SOMERS, of the 7th district, is defeated. He was beaten by WASHBURNE, whose majority is said to be 644. This leaves but one Copperhead Congressman in that State. So says the Cincinnati Gazette.

Congress.

We have no doubt that FULLER, in the 21st District, in the 18th, and KETCHAM in the 12th, will be elected by the soldier's vote. G. H. FULLER, in the 14th, BARNES, in the 17th, and LAWRENCE, in the 24th, are elected on the home vote, and are therefore certain gains. This gives us 15 members certain, and almost certainly 18 of the 24 members from this State.

CONGRESS—14TH DISTRICT.

	Fuller, U.	Miller, C.

	Fuller, U.	Dawson, C.
Indiana	1,700
Westmoreland		1,550
Fayette		750
	1,700	2,300

The soldier's vote will be heavy. One regiment from Indiana county, now in the army of the Potomac, will give votes enough to overcome Dawson's majority on the home vote.

Hon. John A. Bingham.

There is scarcely a doubt of the election of this able and estimable champion of Liberty and Union over the Hon. J. W. WHITE, the present member from the 10th district, Ohio, (the Steubenville district.) The Wheeling Intelligencer of yesterday, speaking of WHITE, says that "he is beaten on the home vote, and doubly beaten on the soldiers' vote." Ohio has made many admirable changes in her Congressional representation, but none better than this.

GREEN COUNTY.—The Messenger, the Copperhead organ, says the gains and losses are about even on last year's vote, in that county, and that LAZEAR's majority is only about 1,469. This ensures the election of LAWRENCE on the home vote by about 1,000 majority.

ANOTHER TUMBLE TO THE CONFEDERATE CREDIT.—The European news received last evening by way of Cape Race, shows that the rebel loan in London has had another tumble, having been quoted as low as 57. On the news of McCLELLAN's nomination the quotation was 72.

The October Elections.

OHIO yesterday reiterated her devotion to the cause of Freedom and the Union by a rousing majority. Our returns as yet include the Soldiers' vote in two or three hospitals only; but the Home vote alone shows a large Union majority, which will of course be largely increased by the returns from the Armies in the field. Even without this, the Union majority is large, and the gain of Representatives in Congress decided. Messrs. Hayes and Eggleston (Union) succeed Messrs. Long and Pendleton (Copper) in the two Cincinnati Districts, while Samuel Shellabarger (Union) has beaten S. S. Cox (Copper) in the Columbus District by 1,000 majority on the Home vote, which that of the Army is certain largely to increase.

PENNSYLVANIA has probably given us a small majority on the Home vote, which that of the Army will largely increase. The gains reported in our telegraphic dispatches are against the Governor's vote of last year, when no soldier voted, save at their respective homes. Now they vote in camp and hospital, and, of course, are not furloughed to go home, so that there is generally a Union loss on the home vote as compared with that of Governor last year; but all that will be regained in the Army vote. We cannot doubt that this will carry the Union popular majority quite up to that of last year, insuring the gain of several Representatives in Congress. Pennsylvania is safe enough for the November contest.

INDIANA has surpassed all expectation. We barely hoped for Gov. Morton's election, yet considered the chances decidedly against him, because of the inevitable loss of the soldiers' vote. But Gov. Morton has very large gains on all the returns which have been received, and is reported elected by 20,000 majority. Of course, this is partly guess work, but the estimate is justified by the returns. Two Union gains of Representatives to Congress (probably) Deiters in the 10th, and Sullivell in the 11th District), and there is a chance for another in the 2d. Of course, the five Union Representatives in the present House, including Speaker COLFAX, whose canvass has been most gallant and indefatigable, are re-elected, though we have but partial returns. The other Union State officers have probably somewhat gain ter majorities than Gov. Morton, but they must all be elected.

This unexpectedly auspicious result has doubtless been powerfully aided by recent developments of the formidable Copperhead conspiracy which eminently pervades Indiana and other Western States, having sympathy with the Rebellion as its impulse, and a North-Western Confederacy, in alliance with the Southern, whereof it is ultimately to form a part, as its least objectionable end. This traitorous intrigue has been steadily rebuked by Gov. Morton's election, and in the regret ful Union triumph wherof it is an item. If the Copperheads do not by this time comprehend that the people will not allow the Union to be subverted any how, they must be impervious to demonstration.

Rejoice with us, fellow citizens! for the October Elections have conclusively settled the Presidential question. The rebellion is doomed, the Union must triumph; Slavery is to die, and LINCOLN and JOHNSON's election next month assured. Let us all rally round the Flag, and make their majority on the popular vote and in Congress overwhelming.—N. Y. Trib.

The Conspiracy in the Northwest.

Dodd, the Grand Master of the Sons of Liberty, in Indiana, who has just been on trial in Indianapolis for treason, has managed to effect his escape by breaking his parole, and has fled the country. Only a portion of the testimony against him has been put in by the Government, but the guilt was fastened upon him, and the organization of which he was the head, so conclusively, that flight was his only resource. It was proved that the organization extended through Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, and other of the Northwestern States; that its members were bound to secrecy under the penalty of death; and that their plan was to arm and drill all of its members, and to prepare them for a rising against this Government whenever word should be given from the chiefs of the Order. The developments of this infamous conspiracy have made a great sensation in Indiana. Among the persons implicated and arrested is the editor of the Indianapolis Sentinel, the principal Copperhead organ of the State. It is put beyond question that many of the members of the Chicago Convention were also members of this treasonable combination, and among them Vallandigham himself, the framer of the Chicago Platform.

It was the discovery and seizure by the Government of a few of the arms belonging to the "Sons of Liberty" that prompted the charge against the Administration, in the fourth resolution in the Platform, of "interference with and denial of the right of the people to bear arms in their defence," and which also instigated Horatio Seymour to denounce President Lincoln so vehemently in his Milwaukee speech, for attempts to disarm the people. Though Dodd has taken to flight, we trust that the Government will bring to trial some of his companions in this infernal treason, and visit upon them condign punishment. These miscreants should be made to understand that they are living in a land of law. The people will quickly settle accounts with the party which has given them its countenance.—N. Y. Trib.

NEVER till this year did we detect the managers of the Democratic party in sending out ballots which concealed or disguised the fact that they did emanate from that party and were intended to promote the triumph of its principles. Now the mails going to the army are flooded with droppy, intended to conceal from the soldiers the fact that they are to be decoyed into voting for the traitorous old sorrowful Slavery and her New-born handmaid. Boys! look out for sawback guerrillas in blue overcoats! You know their treachery and their venom! Rid them keep their distance and let you alone!—N. Y. Tribune.

A HARVEST TO THE TRICK.—The most popular Copperhead Peace trick in the State is rewarded Mc'Clellan tickets to the army the Soldiers' Vote. The object of the deception is to lead soldiers to suppose they are voting the regular Union ticket when really voting for the Chicago Copperheads. The fact that they are compelled to use a trick shows the desperate straits to which they are reduced.—N. Y. Times
