Col. Thompson, of Butler county, was then throduced to the anderoe, and delivered avery ble and argumentalire address. His arguments were addressed mainly to those who should continue with the so-called Democratic party, and the same hatthe between two opinions. Sectified with the so-called Domorratic party, those who were halting between two opinions, es showed conclusively, that no man, who loved is country, and desired the preservation of her particulars, could apport Gem. McCislian. He evided the progress of the war, the official late of Persident Lincoln, contrasted the principles represented by the two emiddaws, and noticed by showing that the traway to peace and maximal hotor was through the ruccess of he Union arms. The Colonel's speech was attended by the heavy to peace the Union arms. The Colonel's speech was attended with heavy rounds of applause. The Union Citics Club, under Prof. W. H. Dr. James Prestiey was then loudly called pon, and was greeted with thous and chorus.

Dr. James Prestley was then loudly called pon, and was greated with shouts and cheers. Its spread was confined mainly to the Ohicago latform, its constructors, and the position which less. McCleilan occupied in regard to it. He syvience, in a mant mantarity manner, the rimiples of the Chicago platform, showed the sharecter of the men who composed the convention, and the objects which they had in view. Its argued that the defeat of Stophen A. Douglas, for the Presidency, was the destruction of the Democratic party, and the object of the man ho assembled as Chicago, was to repair the image. All, the States which rebelled were remorable. States and to get these back to restore "that. Halon as it was," can be the "best in view. Hence the planks about a "constation of hostilities," a "convention of the States," to.
