Meeting in Union. Township.

On Saturday evening, a large mosting of the loyal citizens of Union township was held at Sandsbury's flotal. At saven o'clock the mosting was called to order by appointing B. Young, Brq., President, John Stucker, Noah P. Gilmore, and John V. Auth, Vice Presidents, and W. J. Richardson, Esq., Secretary. This was one of the largest and most enthusistic meelings ever held in Union township, and the excellent or-der was highly creditable to thore assembled. On motion, Gapt McGunds was called upon to address the meeting, which he did in smost elio-quent ead masterly sprech, and was repeatedly obsered for the heavy blows hurled against our opponents. He was followed by J. J. Siebanezz, in a German speech, which received forquent ap-plansie, and proved the he was not only sloquent but witzy, and could hold the people by fits close reacoing and farolis segmant. Mt. Sieba-neck is doing good work in this complian. "Then followed Thomas M. Marshall, Enq., whom all delight to hear, and who, doubliers, can hold a crowd longer than any other man. He was witzy and argumentative, and while one moment his scaltors were convalied with lengh-tor, the next they were mailed to tare by his strong and farolis spisals. It was really Mar-hall's test short. He may rest his larget the largest and most enthusiastic mostings even
