WEDNESDAY MORNING....OCT. 26, 1864.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Union Mass Convention in Noblestown.
3,000 Citizens Present.

Yesterday, one of the largest gatherings ever convened in this county, outside of the cities, was held at Noblestown, North Fayette township. The day was beautiful, and the display exceeded the expectations of the most sanguine. About 10 o'clock, the delegations from the different townships began to arrive, and took the positions assigned them in the procession, which was formed about a mile from Noblestown. The whole neighborhood appeared alive with excitement, the roads leading to the town being thronged with carriages, buggies, wagons, horsemen and pedestrians.

At ten o'clock the procession commenced to move, and the wildest enthusiasm was manifested throughout the entire line. The procession was headed by the Chief Marshal, George Dickson, Esq., of North Fayette township, who was assisted by a number of competent aids.

The Delegation from Canonsburg and Cecil township, Washington county, were accorded the right of the procession, and were preceded by the Canonsburg Glee Club, who discoursed Kelley's music, and was a marked feature in the proceedings of the day. Moon township delegation, Wm. H. Guy, Esq., Marshal, followed in wagons appropriately decorated with flags and evergreens. Robinson township, Capt. John Young, Jr., came next, and made a good display. South Fayette followed, with a wagon, drawn by twenty-six horses, containing a number of young ladies, beautifully dressed, and singing patriotic songs. Forty or fifty wagons and carriages followed, in which were a number of banners, bearing the following inscriptions: "In God is our Trust—Under His guidance we will subdue the Enemies of Liberty;" a representation of McClellan falling through the Chicago Platform, inscribed "Anything you like, only make me President;" illustration of an Eagle, with a Copperhead in its mouth, and the words: "The Way of the Transgressor is Hard" —"Ye are of your Father—the Devil." Fifty young ladies on horseback accompanied this delegation.

Findley township, Samuel Moorhead, Esq., Marshal, large wagon elegantly festooned with wreaths and flowers, containing members of the Ladies' Union Relief Association of Clifton," with banners inscribed "Lincoln and Johnson;" "Man will give the Rebels all they Want—Lincoln will give them Shot and Shell;" "The Union Now and Forever," "The Old Keystone State Sure for Abe and Andy;" "If you vote for Mac, the War will Commence—Come out in November and Vote for Old Abe;" "Don't vote for Mac, if elected, he will sleep on the Gunboats, a brave man is he!" "If you want to know what the Devil is doing, look at the Post—if you wish to see what good men are doing, look at the Gazette;" "Abe and Andy will save the Union in spite of Copperheads."

North Fayette township, followed, preceded by a musical band. A large wagon, elaborately decorated, containing a number of juveniles, singing songs, and a number of banners, with the following inscriptions: "Fight it out now, and save Young America from bloodshed in the future;" "If you rebel, we will give you all the slaves and slave territory you can hold." Other wagons and carriages followed, bearing banners inscribed, "Abe and Andy;" "Death to Traitors;" Little Mac, Never in the Front;" "Look Out, Snakes, Lincoln's Car is Coming;" "The North Star Good for Old Abe."

Snowden township in wagons and on horseback, with flags and banners.

A Mansfield delegation, with a large transparency, upon the top of which perched a raccoon, with the motto—"We will risk that same old Coon: Eleven beautiful young ladies, on horseback, dressed in black, representing the eleven rebellious States, came next. They carried a banner, upon which was inscribed—"Our folly has caused us to mourn." This was a very attractive feature in the procession, and created quite a sensation. About one hundred young ladies and gentlemen followed, which concluded the demonstration. The procession was over two miles in length, and occupied three quarters of an hour in passing a given point.

After marching through the town, the procession proceeded to an adjoining hill, where stands for the speakers had been erected, and after considerable delay was dismissed.

The meeting was then called to order by Geo. Dickson, Esq., Chief Marshal, who announced the following officers:

President—Rev. T. A. Hutchinson.

Vice Presidents—Messrs. Alex. M'Nary, John N. M'Donald, Samuel Morehead, and Capt. John Young, Jr.

Secretaries—Messrs Thomas Davis, F. Coleman, Thomas Hineman, John Paxton, A. L. Stoddart, H. Hannah, G. Comp, J. Prudy, O. Gallagher, J. K. M'Munn, and P. Milligan, all returned veteran soldiers.

Mr. Hutchinson, in taking the chair said that some persons might think it strange that a minister of the Gospel should be called upon to preside at what might be termed a political gathering; he, however, was of opinion that it was right and proper that ministers should exercise their rights as citizens, and was their influence in maintaining the cause of Truth and Justice. He then called upon the Rev. Marquis Ormond, of Hookstown, who lead in prayer.

Gen. J. K. Moorhead was then called upon, who made a short but telling speech, which was received with tremendous cheers. Hon. John M. Kirkpatrick followed, and delivered an eloquent address. During Mr. Kirkpatrick's remarks, he was interrupted by a Copperhead present, when he administered a scathing rebuke to him; which was rellished highly by the assemblage. Rev. T. M. Boyle, of Elizabeth, Rev. J. W. Bains, of Canonsburg, and Alexander M. Watson, Esq., also delivered addresses, which were listened to with marked attention.

About four o'clock the meeting adjourned with three rousing cheers for the Union, and the immense crowd—at least three thousand persons being in attendance—wended their way to their homes, apparently well satisfied with the proceedings of the day.

We cannot close our brief notice without acknowledging the generous hospitality of Daniel Hoffman, Esq., and his kind attentions to the speakers and the members of the press.

Meeting at Concert Hall—Interesting Speeches—A Voice from the Army.

A large and spirited meeting of Union voters was held last evening, at Headquarters, Concert Hall.

The meeting was organized by the appointment of the following officers: President—John M. Killen, Esq., Eighth Ward. Vice Presidents—David Collins, of Penn township; James Monteith, Third Ward; Wm. Woods, Second Ward. Secretaries—Reporters of the Press.

Hons. George W. Lawrence, member of Congress elect from the Washington district, was introduced by the Chairman as the successful competitor of John L. Dawson, who was received with loud applause. Mr. Lawrence declined to make a speech, remarking that he had been unwell for several days, and was still in charge of a physician. He would be happy to address his fellow citizens of Pittsburgh, but was unable to remain on his feet fifteen minutes. He announced that Rev. James Presley, D.D., was on the stand, and would no doubt favor the audience with a speech.

Dr. Presley rose and announced that the Union Central Glee Club was present, and would sing a song.

The Glee Club took its position upon the platform, and sang two campaign songs, which were received with loud applause.

Gen. Moorhead then announced that Hon. John Cessna, the well known Democrat, would address his loyal fellow citizens of Pittsburgh, on Saturday evening, at Concert Hall. Rev. Haines, of Canonsburg, would speak at the same place this (Wednesday) evening. Hon. Samuel Galway, of Ohio, would speak at Tuesday evening, of next week.

Hon. Amos Myers, of Clarion county, was then introduced, and delivered a very able and telling speech. His address was illustrated with anecdotes of a humorous character, which were happily related, and received with shouts of applause.

Gen. Moorhead then announced that a meeting would be held in the Seventh Ward, on Friday evening, which would be addressed by Rev. Jas. Presley, D. D., and Rev. John Douglas, D. D., which fact would be sufficient in itself to draw a large audience.

Dr. Presley was then called, and delivered a short but pithy speech, which was heartily applauded.

The Chairman then introduced two returned soldiers, belonging to the 79th regiment, Col. Hambright, who had just reached the city from Gen. Sherman's army, and who attended the meeting for the purpose of testifying to the fact that they had heard the rebels, time and again, cheer for Gen. M'Clellan—a fact of which the Copperheads had strenuously denied.

The soldiers were greeted with thunders of applause, and after silence had been restored, one of them, Mr. Culbertson, stated that, while at Resaca, on the 11th of this month, he heard the rebels cheer lustily for McClellan more than once. It was quite a common thing, and thousands of our men could testify to the same fact.

The other soldier, Mr. Chester, testified that he heard the rebels cheer for McClellan at Jonesboro, and he had also conversed with a number of rebel prisoners, who frankly admitted that the only hope the Confederacy now had for success was the election of McClellan. This gentleman stated, in private conversation, that no soldier, unless he were a fool, could fight three years against the rebels, and then come home and vote against the very cause for which he had been fighting.

Mr. Lawrence vouched for the reliability and veracity of these men. They belonged to his county, and their statements were entitled to the fullest credit. They had served their country faithfully and honorably, and now came home to vote for Lincoln and Johnson.

Three cheers were proposed for these patriotic men, and given with a will.

We may state, in this connection, that over a hundred soldiers belonging to the 79th Regiment arrived in the city yesterday, on their way home, on furlough. These corroborate the statements above made. They were unable to be present at the meeting, however.

The Glee Club then sang another song, after which the assemblage dispersed.

Aladdin Oil Company.

The oil works of this Company are located on the east bank of the Allegheny river, and about one mile north of the mouth of the Kiskeminetas, in this county. The Allegheny Valley Railroad passes through their ground, and the buildings of the company are on both sides of the road. The company own in fee simple a territory of about 200 acres of excellent bituminous and cannel coalland. Their works consist of five revolving Retorts for the manufacture of coal oil; a refinery consisting of twelve stills, with a capacity of producing 2000 barrels per month; an iron tank 100 feet in diameter, and 16 feet high, capable of holding about 32,000 barrels of oil; one bleaching house; one barreling and glue house; one large government store house; an office; a blacksmith and a carpenter shop; one finished building for the Agent to live in, and twenty-one cabins for operatives. The works are furnished with Worthington Pumps capable of supplying abundance of water, and a pump for furnishing a supply from the boats. They are perhaps the most complete works of the kind in Western Pennsylvania, and will repay any one's time for giving them an examination. They are owned by the enterprising firm of Brereton, Johnston & Wilkins.—Kittaning Democrat.

CURRY'S NORMAL INSTITUTE.—By entering next Monday, students can join a new class, and complete a course in the regular studies before the next professional examination. Over three hundred and fifty ladies attended this school during the year closing in August, all of whom are now teaching, and most of them at salaries of from thirty to forty dollars per month. No pupil who completes a course in this institution need remain without a situation a day, as there is a constant demand for teachers from this school, and as a necessary consequence of the war, the demand for female teachers must still increase. Now is the time to enter for a full course.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.—We have been requested by District Attorney Kirkpatrick to state that all parties, having suits in the Court of Quarter Sessions are not promptly in Court this morning at nine o'clock, with their witnesses, their recognizances will be forfeited and attachments issued forthwith. This course has been rendered necessary on account of the non-attendance of the parties interested.

THEATRE.—The celebrated play of "Ingomar, the Barbarian," will be produced at the Theatre this evening, Mr. Henderson appearing as "Ingomar." As this place has not been performed in this city for some months, a large audience will doubtless be in attendance to-night.

SHERIDAN'S LAST GREAT VICTORY.

THE DETAILS COMING IN.

Pursuit Ended for the Present.

THE TROPHIES ADORNING THE CAMPS OF THE VICTORS.

Arrival of Prisoners.

SHERIDAN MORE THAN A MATCH FOR EARLY.

The Rebel Loss 10,000.

SHERIDAN GETTING READY FOR ANOTHER ADVANCE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The Commercial Advertiser's special says: The details of Gen. Sheridan's brilliant victory in the Valley on the 19th are coming in. The pursuit has ended for the present, and there is now time afforded to count the spoils of the gallant achievement. Prisoners are being sent to places of safe custody in the rear, and the trophies of war are adorning the camps of the gallant victors. Gen. Custer has already brought to Washington the flags taken from the enemy.

A Harper's Ferry letter dated Oct. 24th, contains information from official sources, and therefore entirely reliable, that 3,000 prisoners have already been captured, and that 1,500 arrived at Harpers Ferry on Thursday, and that 500 more were left at Winchester.

Our cavalry is still engaged in picking up rebel stragglers and deserters, who are glad to escape from the rebel army, after it has sustained so crushing a defeat. The rebels candidly admit that Sheridan is the best General against whom they have ever fought, and that his dashing tactics are more than a match for even Jubal Early.

It is ascertained from rebel prisoners and deserters, and from other indisputable sources, that the loss of the enemy will reach 10,000 in killed, wounded and prisoners.

Among the guns taken were twenty new brass pieces, which were recently turned out from Richmond, and with which Early had been supplied only a few days before the battle. Twelve thousand small arms were picked up on the field and along the track of the flying enemy, who exhibited a state of demoralization not often witnessed among veteran troops, such as those with which Early was provided.

The rebels had five infantry divisions and four cavalry brigades in the engagement, and a large portion of them embraced the flower of Lee's army.

Our wounded are being rapidly removed to Martinsburg from Winchester, and Gen. Sheridan is putting his army in order for another advance, when Grant shall give the signal. He is already being supplied with material for another campaign, and will not long remain passive.

NEW YORK GOLD MARKET.

THE SOLDIER'S VOTING.

AN ABSURD REPORT.

The Election Agent an Annovance.

GOOD NEWS FROM MISSOURI.

MAJOR GEN. RICKETTS VERY LOW.

Dismissal of Clerks in the Quartermaster's Department.

&c., &c., &c.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The gold market shows less strength than yesterday. The bull clique appear to have accomplished their object and are operating less actively. The fluctuations during the morning have not exceeded 1¼. The final market opened at 217½, and at the latest quotation stood at 218.

The Commercial Advertiser's Washington special says: The soldiers are already giving their votes for the Presidency. Several regiments of New York soldiers in the army of the Potomac have given majorities for McClellan, while in others he has nearly received two or four votes.

An absurd report is current that Secretary Seward has apologized for the arrest of the St. Albans marauders.

The Post's Washington special says: The contrabands who are in the army are a great annoyance to Gen. Grant, who is planning some important operations.

The news from Missouri to the War Department is good. Price has been thoroughly whipped, and is running away as fast as possible.

Gen. Ricketts is very low, and grave fears are entertained of his recovery.

Secretary Stanton has dismissed twenty clerks in the Quartermaster's Department for sympathizing with the rebellion.

Gen. Wool passed through this city to-day, en route to Washington in obedience to orders from the War Department. It is presumed he will be put in command of our north eastern border.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

Skirmish Between the Pickets.

HEAVY GUNS IN POSITION IN OUR FRONT.

Rebel Sharpshooters Troublesome.

FROM THE SHENANDOAH VALLEY

&c., &c., &c.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The World's Army of the Potomac special of the 24th says: A severe skirmish occurred last night between the pickets in front of Petersburg. During its continuance there was heavy firing of artillery on both sides. One rebel shell burst in front of Warren's corps, killing and wounding several men. This demonstration makes it apparent that the rebels have replaced their heavy guns in position on the works in our front. Their recent removal of them was only a feint.

Almost immediately in front of Petersburg the rebel sharpshooters have become very troublesome. On other portions of the line all has been quiet.

The World's Washington special to night says: Advices from the Shenandoah Valley received to-day, show that no movements of importance have been made. The enemy are in no better position, and have made no demonstrations of any kind since their abandonment of Fisher's Hill.

The Tribune's Martinsburg special of the 23d says: Eleven hundred prisoners have just arrived at the front, being the first installment of about 4000 taken on the 19th. We have captured sixty-four guns, including a number taken from us by the enemy.

Gen. Grant and the Politicians.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—A special dispatch to the Commercial Advertiser, dated Washington, 25th, says: It is stated that General Grant will insist that the civilians now at the front, who are engaged in the distribution of tickets to the soldiers, for the coming election, shall either leave the army altogether, or make some arrangement by which their mission can be performed without impeding military operations. Their political discussions excite the soldiers, and in some cases lead them to neglect their duties. It will not be surprising if there is a sudden exodus of politicians from the army ere long.

Deserters Taking the Oath—Trial of Conscripts.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—Forty-eight deserters from the rebel army arrived at the front last evening. They have taken the oath and are going north.

The trial of Johnson and Sutton, contrabands, was concluded this afternoon. The Judge in his address stated that the firm had made a fortune by fraudulent practices and should be severely punished. The decision is not yet known. The case of Hamilton, Estor & Co. Ball, comes up to-morrow.

Opera House Burnt.

BOSTON, Oct. 25.—The opera house of Morris Bros., Pell & Trowbridge, caught fire about five o'clock this afternoon, and was entirely consumed, leaving only the walls standing. It occupied the site of the old Provincial Government House, in Provincial House Court, with its main entrance on Washington street.

RAILROAD COLLISION.

Forrest Crossing the Tennessee.

THE CAPTURE OF THE TOTTEN HOSPITAL

Four Confederate Captains Shot in Retaliation.

Special Western Associated Press Dispatch.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 25.—An accidental collision of a passenger and freight train, near Shepardsville this morning, to disarranged the Louisville and Nashville railroad, that the up train was two hours and a half behind time this afternoon.

The passengers confirm the reported crossing of the Tennessee river by Forrest, below Florence, Ala., and say that six rebel regiments are reported at Centreville.

On account of the capture of the Totten hospital mail by guerrillas under a notorious woman named Sue Mundy, and the murder of the mail carrier, four guerrillas who called themselves Confederate Captains, all of whom were recently captured on the Cumberland river, were yesterday taken from the Exchange barracks here and shot, in retaliation for the aforesaid murder.

New York Dry Goods Market.

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—The week opens moderately active in the dry goods market; but the advance of the last two weeks is barely sustained on many descriptions of goods. At a sale of woolen and clothing goods the bidding was tame, and prices were moderate, scarcely sustaining the advance of the past week. Very few duplicates were made. At a special sale of bonnets, ribbons, and millinery, there was a fair attendance of buyers, and prices were slightly advanced on previous sales. At an extensive sale of white goods, Vienna brocha shawls, German, British and French goods, and 5,000 pieces of Saxony woolen dress goods, a very large line of handkerchiefs sold quickly at the advance. The dress goods realized a nominal advance, and were generally duplicated. At a sale of hosiery goods and gloves there was a sharp advance on gloves, ranging from 10 to 12 per cent. over former sales.

Funeral Obsequies.

WHEELING, VA., Oct. 25.—The funeral obsequies of the late Col. Thorburn, commanding a division of the Army of West Virginia, Capt. Blar, Adjutant on General Crook's staff, and Sargeant Jenkins, killed at the battle of Cedar Creek, took place at the capitol, where they had been lying in state this afternoon. The exercises were most solemn and impressive. The cortage was the largest ever witnessed in this vicinity, being over a mile in length. Among the distinguished officers in attendance, and officiating as pall bearers, were Major Generals Heintzleman and Kelley and the members of their respective staffs. The city was draped in mourning, and business entirely suspended, the citizens turning out en masse to do honors to the gallant dead.

Arrival of a Blockade Runner.

HALIFAX, Oct. 25.—By the steamer Moorcasdales, we learn that the blockade runner Lillie, the Hattie, had arrived at Bermuda with 600 bales of cotton, and that the Hope, with 1,400 bales, and the Falcon, with 700 bales, had arrived at Nassau. They were all from Wilmington.

The Moorcasdales also reports that the pirates, Tallahassee and Edith, left Wilmington on the same night, with Little Hattie, for a raid.

Colonel Lay's steel plated blockade runner, sailed from Halifax this evening.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—Six more of the Arctic whaling fleet have arrived here. The steamers Nevada from Oregon, British Columbia, brings nearly three hundred thousand dollars in gold. The Legislature Assembly of Van Couver's Island has passed a resolution favoring a general union with British Columbia. The news from the mines is generally favorable. The overland mail is now carried regularly. We have New York dates of September 28th. The Nicaragua steamer Americas arrived here yesterday with passengers which left New York on September 24th.

Forrest Enforcing a Merciless Conscription in Tennessee—Return of Colonel Hayes' Command.

CAIRO, Oct. 25.—Memphis papers of the 23d say that Forrest is reported concentrating a large force at Jackson, Tennessee, and that a merciless conscription was being enforced in the country adjacent to Memphis.

Colonel Hayes' command, defeated at Eastport, Mississippi, have returned to Memphis. It is stated that Hayes was not to blame for the disaster, as he simply obeyed orders.

The Mammoth Pittsburgh Gun to be Tested To-day.

FORT HAMILTON, Oct. 25.—The immense gun at Fort Hamilton, the largest in the world, will be tested to-morrow (Wednesday) morning. It is expected that ten shots will be fired, commencing at about 11 o'clock. The weight of the ball used in this gun is about half a ton.

Sale of Blooded Horses.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 25.—The sale of blooded horses to day belonging to the estate of the late McDonald, was largely attended. The famous Flora Temple was sold to G F. Pressbury, of New York, for $8,000.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

The river is still receding slowly at this point with about four feet in the channel last evening. The weather continues mild and pleasant for this season of the year, and apparently settled.

The only arrival we have to report is the James Powell from Gallipolis. Her cargo consisted of 500 barrels of flour for Clark & Co; 353 bars iron, Lisut Col Green; and some small lots for city freight. The Pine Grove and William Butler from Cincinnati are the next boats due.

The Emma Graham for Zanesville, Jonas Powell for Gallipolis, and the Iron City for Cincinnati cleared last evening. The latter boat left here with a good trip in addition, in which she had engagements below, among some few thousand barrels of apples as Yellow Creek.

The Commonwealth, Capt Ben Hatchison's mammoth side-wheeler, is almost completed, and will be ready to commence business in a very short time. This fine steamer is intended as a lower Mississippi River packet.

The Yorktown, Capt Jake Poe's new boat, is now receiving the finishing touches, and may be expected at this port shortly. Capt Frank Marratta expects to have his new boat finished within a few weeks.

The Minerva from Wheeling is due this morning, and will leave again at twelve o'clock.

The staunch and commodious Citizen, Capt Stevens, is announced for St Louis and all intermediate points forthwith.

The Kate B Porter, Pine Grove, O T Dumont, and Golden Era, were advertised to leave Cincinnati for Pittsburgh on Tuesday.
