A Few Questions with Answers. Who wrote the second resolution of the Chicago platform, which declares the war a failure, and demands cossation of hestilities and negotiations or other peaceable measures and negotiations or other peaceable measures?

Mr. Vallandigham asserts that he did.
Who approves of this and the other resolutions which form the Chicago platform? The World says General McClelian is now "their recognized exponent," and adds, that with "those great principles of public policy amnounced at Chicago," "no word or act of his life is in conflict." The World is the special organ of Gen. McClelian.
Do Vallandigham and McClelian therefore agree? Yes, for Vallandigham mades a platform with which no word or act of McClelian's is in conflict," according to his organ; Vallandigham aupports McClelian, and his it there doubtless prevalted upon the Convention to nominate his "own famillar friend," Pendleton, for the Vice Presideacy.
Will Vallandigham have any influence in the administration, if McClelian and Pendleton should be elected? Certainly; as the leader of the Convention, the author of the principal resolution, the member who moved to make McClellan's nomination unanimous, the "own familiar friend" of the Vice President, and the most powerful will and best intellect in his party, he would be sure to have a preponderating influence in the administration, if the McClellan-Pendleten ticket should be elected.

What is the best thing to help the election of leClellan and Pendleten? Jeff. Davis said at Augusta:

at Augusta:

"We must beat Sherman, we must march into Tenn'ssee—there we will draw from twenty thousand to thirty thousand to our standard, and so strengthened, we must push the enemy back to the tanks of the Ohio, and thus give the pence party of the North an accretion no puny editorial can give."

He spid, a few days later, at blacon:

"I believe it is in the power of the men of the Oosfederacy to plant our banners on the banks of the Ohio, where we may say to the Yankeen: Be quiet, or we shall trachyon another lesson." Within the next thirty days much is to be done, for upon our success much depends. Within the next thirty days, therefore, let all who are absences, or who ought to be in the army, go promptly to their ranks Let fresh victories crown our arms, and the peace party, if there he such at the North, can elect its candidate. But whether a peace candidate is elected or not, Yankeo instinct will teach him that it is better to end the war, and leave us to the enjoyment of our own rights.

Mr. Boyce, of South Carelina, wrote, too, the other day:

"Tour only hope of peace is in the ascendancy of the conservative party North. Partify that party if you can, by victories."

Are the McClellan-Pendleton leaders in fawor of foreign intervention? Lord Lyons wrote, in February, 1862, efficially to his gowernment, that "eveveral of the demoaratic leaders" assured him privately, in secret interviews, that "if their own party was in power they would accept an offer of mediation." These are the wards of the British minister sofficial report.

What will be the inference of foreign governments if McClellan and Pendleton are elected? That they may asfely interfere in our affoir, as the Frennt Emperor has intervened in Mexico, and that they will have the countenance, openly or secretly, of the McClellan-Pendleton leaders, jost as Hapoleon had the countenance of Almonte and the treacherous reactionary politicians of Mexico in his piratical schemes.

Dees the Chicago platform say anything against foreign intervention? No.
Does it any onything against "the right of secession?" No.

Are the Chicago and McClellan-Pendleton Are the Unicago and moutetian remateron dates committed against the principle of secasion?
